Letter received, this date by the NYO, which states, in part, as follows:

"We have been ordered to eliminate the United States Chief Delegate to the United Nations, Mr. Arthur Goldberg. In view of Mr. Goldberg's praiseworthy efforts on behalf of humanity, the decision has been reached to use our sonic gun. The sonic gun is a pistol sized weapon operated by dry cell batteries emitting a narrow sonic beam of high intensity that causes coagulation of the blood of any living organism in its path up to the range of 200 yards. It is ironic that the last time this weapon was employed for humane reasons was on the late Adlai Stevenson."

Re New York airtel 10/3/67, and Bureau teletype to New York 10/4/67.

Re airtel concerns a threat made against a highly placed official of the U. S. Government. The Bureau should have been advised by a more expeditious means of the facts in this case. Insure that all personnel handling cases of this nature are impressed with the necessity of promptly advising the Bureau in order that our responsibilities can be carried out without any undue delay.

The threatening communication apparently was mailed to the New York Office. You did not indicate what postmark was contained on the envelope nor did you state if any investigation had been conducted in attempts to identify the writer through public source documents or otherwise. It would appear logical that at least some attempts should have been made to identify the writer prior to discussing this case with the United States Attorney's Office.

Even though a declination has been received from the United States Attorney's Office due to the circumstances involved and the obvious leads you are instructed to conduct logical investigation to identify the subject. Forward letter for appropriate examination.

b7C Advise Bureau results.

On October 3, 1967, a letter was received by the New York Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, which is as follows:

"Sept 30, 1967

"Sir:

"It is my sad duty to inform you that we have been ordered to eliminate The United States Chief Delegate to the United Nations, Mr. Arthur Goldberg. The reason for this elimination is the presentation of irrefutable proof that Mr. Goldberg is, in reality, an agent of an international Zionist conspiracy to dominate the Earth. He has lately been quietly active in this organization's behalf.

"In view of Mr. Goldbergs praiseworthy efforts on behalf of humanity, the decision has been reached to use our sonic 'gun'. The sonic 'gun' is a pistol sized weapon, operated by dry cell batteries, emitting a narrow sonic beam of high intensity that causes co-agulation of the blood of any living organism in its path up to a range of two hundred yards. It is ironic that the last time this weapon was employed for humane reasons was on the late Adlai Stevenson. The effect is exactly that of a coronary thrombosis. The only difference being the collapse of minor blood vessels.

"I should also like to submit, for your information, that, for the first time in thirty years, the vote was split. 2 for Death 1 for life. This has not happened since the vote concerning the execution and elimination of Judge Crater. The late Judge was a defaulting member of our group and was actually leaving the night club for a secret rendezvous with a prominent newspaper publisher, Mr. Hearst.

On October 3, 1967, a representative of the United States Attorney's Office, Southern District of New York, New York, advised that he would decline prosecution in this matter, inasmuch as the letter was a nonsensical letter, apparently meant to irritate a public official and there is no indication the writer intended to carry out the threat.

Gentlemen:

This is a letter containing information which may or may not be of value to your organization.

b7C

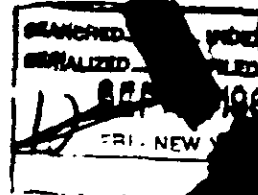

First of all, allow me to introduce myself. My name is [REDACTED] I am a field representative of a privately endowed intelligence apparatus the aim of which is to preserve peace and ensure the continuation of the Human Race. My background is that of an average upper-middle class American. To give you a brief resume of my past activities; I was in Hungary in 1956, Lebanon and Syria in 1958, in Northern India in 1959, etc; Oh, by the way, this letter is not in my handwriting but is being written by my order, by one of my subordinates. A man, who, although a trifle impetuous, is a good and loyal American.

Last week, Thursday the 14th of September to be exact, a most interesting person arrived in New York having come by air from Zurich. He is traveling under a false name (which I am at present unable to furnish) carrying a Swiss Passport. His real identity is Lt Colonel A. N. Groniev. He is the last of the old CHEKA apemen and one of the few surviving members of the espionage system of the late unlamented Lavrenti P. Beria. By our records (which are hideously out of date) the last mention of Mr Groniev is in Jan of 1966 when he was re-assigned from his post in Bucharesti back to KGB headquarters in Moscow. Groniev is 58 years old but is still one of the most skillful and subtle assassins in the Soviet spyon Apparat. He is at present enroute by train to Sacramento California. He is, I assure you, being kept under close surveillance by some of our people. However my superiors have decided that the appropriate Government Agencies should be notified, albeit anonymously. Hence this letter to you, Sir.

I close with the sincere hope that serious consideration be given the above and

I remain

Yours Very Truly

DETAILS:

Enclosed with each copy of this report are xerox copies of the letters written by unknown subject, dated September 12, 1967, and September 30, 1967, and an envelope postmarked New York, New York, October 2, 1967.

b7C

This investigation was predicated upon the receipt of a letter by the New York Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) on October 3, 1967. The letter, which was dated September 30, 1967, and postmarked New York City, October 2, 1967, contained an apparent threat upon the life of United States Ambassador to United Nations ARTHUR GOLDBERG. The letter was signed [REDACTED] Commandant, Northeastern, North America.

NY 9-4679

On October 3, 1967, Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA), STEPHEN E. KAUFMAN, Southern District of New York (SDNY), New York, New York, advised that he would decline prosecution in this matter, inasmuch as the threatening letter was nonsensical, apparently meant to irritate a public official and since there was no indication the writer intended to carry out the threat.

b7C A review of local directories covering New York City area failed to reveal a listing for [REDACTED] or a [REDACTED] b7C On October 10, 1967, it was determined by SA [REDACTED] that there is no record for subject in the files of the Bureau of Criminal Identification (BCI) and/or the Bureau of Special Services (BSS), New York City Police Department.

b7C On October 10, 1967, it was determined by SA [REDACTED] that there was no record for a [REDACTED] or a [REDACTED] in the files of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York.

UNKNOWN SUBJECT
IMPERSONATION OF ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG
WHILE UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE
TO UNITED NATIONS, APRIL 16, 1968
IMPERSONATION

On October 1, 1971, former Justice of the United States Supreme Court, Arthur J. Goldberg, advised he had received a call on that date from Senator Hubert H. Humphrey. Senator Humphrey advised Justice Goldberg that a letter had been sent to him dated April 16, 1968, purporting to be on Justice Goldberg's stationery as United States Representative to the United Nations, addressed to an Israeli official and signed "Arthur J. Goldberg." Justice Goldberg said the letter is a complete forgery, and this Bureau instituted immediate investigation in efforts to identify the individual who prepared the letter.

Justice Goldberg was interviewed on October 1, 1971, at which time he furnished a copy of the letter in question. The letter is addressed to "My Dear Abba" and indicates that Justice Goldberg entered into collusion with Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban and Dr. Henry A. Kissinger as long ago as April, 1968, in order to place Dr. Kissinger in the position of Political Affairs Advisor to Richard M. Nixon should Mr. Nixon be elected President. Justice Goldberg emphatically stated the letter is a forgery and that he had called a press conference for 2:30 P.M., October 1, 1971, to denounce it as such. Justice Goldberg commented that he regards this letter as an attempt to "mess up" the present Middle East situation, by making it appear that Dr. Kissinger, Justice Goldberg, and the U. S. Government "are in the pocket of the Israelis."

The FBI is conducting intensive investigation in efforts to identify the person responsible for the preparation of the above-described forged letter. Dr. Kissinger has been advised of our investigation into this matter.

ADMINISTRATIVE

Baltimore refer to enclosed teletype for background information concerning captioned matter.

Justice ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG was re-interviewed by WFO Buagents on 10/4/71, at which time he furnished handwriting samples and a copy of his book entitled The Defenses of Freedom.

b7C Concerning hand stamps bearing his signature, Justice GOLDBERG advised that he did have such stamps while at the United Nations (UN). He was unable to advise how many such stamps are in existence but stated that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] would have this information and would possibly know the disposition of the stamps. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were [REDACTED] at the UN and, upon his departure from the UN, [REDACTED] and have remained employed there.

DC
b7C Justice GOLDBERG mentioned that one [REDACTED] at Baltimore, Maryland, a former Labor Department employee, has from time to time written harrassing letters to him in connection with his [REDACTED] dismissal from the Department of Labor. In this regard, WFO notes with interest that WFO file [REDACTED] (Bufile [REDACTED] BAfile [REDACTED] reflects that [REDACTED] date and place of birth - [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] wrote five letters in 1968 to a U.S. Court of Appeals Judge, Washington, D. C. (WDC), concerning a civil case in which he was involved. The case concerned [REDACTED] dismissal from the Department of Labor.

b7C Xeroxed copies of these letters were furnished to WFO by the Bureau on 2/13/68, and WFO assumes the originals of same have been retained by the Bureau. However, if such is not the case, WFO is forwarding xeroxed copies of the [REDACTED] b7C letters with this communication. It appears as though [REDACTED] might have a motive for embarrassing Justice GOLDBERG since [REDACTED] was apparently dismissed from the Labor Department while Justice GOLDBERG was serving as Secretary of Labor.

REQUESTS OF THE BUREAU

The Laboratory is requested to conduct the following investigation:

- (1) Determine whether or not the "Dear Abba" letter in question is a reduction in size of an original letter.
- (2) Compare the known signatures of Justice GOLDBERG with the signature appearing on the letter in question to determine if any indications are present that the signature on the letter was traced.
- (3) Compare the signature on the front cover of the enclosed book with the signature on the letter in question to determine if the questioned signature could have been traced therefrom.
- b7C (4) Compare the typewriting in the questioned letter with the typewriting appearing on the enclosed five xeroxed letters from [REDACTED] or on the original of same letters if they have been retained by the Bureau.

DISPOSITION OF ITEMS SUBMITTED

All of the above enclosures must be returned to WFO on completion of requested examinations.

ENCLOSURE ATTACHED

ADDITIONAL BACKGROUND CONCERNING CASE:

b7C On 10/4/71, Senator HUBERT H. HUMPHREY furnished three items enclosed herewith. He stated that he is not familiar with anyone named DAVID A. PRICE and that a written reply to PRICE was returned with the stamp "Return to Writer; No Such Number." Senator HUMPHREY subsequently made both letters available to [REDACTED] to Senator HUMPHREY, who in turn advised Justice ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG of the matter. Thereafter, [REDACTED] returned the letters to Senator HUMPHREY.

It is noted that the three enclosures for the Bureau are the papers actually received by Senator HUMPHREY from the person identifying himself as DAVID A. PRICE. Consequently, no efforts were made to preserve these papers for latent fingerprints until they were obtained by Bureau Agents from Senator HUMPHREY on 10/4/71.

REQUESTS OF THE BUREAU:

b7C The Identification Division is requested to examine items one, two and three for the presence of any latent fingerprints of value. Should any such fingerprints be developed, they should be compared with the known fingerprints of [REDACTED] white, male, DOB [REDACTED] POB [REDACTED] formerly employed as [REDACTED] is being considered a possible suspect in this matter since in the past he has written letters to Justice GOLDBERG labeling him a "Criminal."

The FBI Laboratory is requested to conduct the following examinations:

1. Determine, if possible, the make of typewriter utilized in items one, two and three. It should be noted that although item three is not an original, it is not expected that any clearer copy of the "Dear Abba" letter will become available in the near future.

WFO 47-10253

2. Compare the typewriting on item three with the typewriting on items one and two. It appears as though Senator HUMPHREY's name on items one and two is ~~the~~ in original typing.

b7C 3. Compare the typewriting on items one, two and three with the known typewriting of [REDACTED] samples of which were furnished the Bureau by re airtel.

4. Determine if the stamp on item one was from a roll or sheet of stamps.

DISPOSITION OF ITEMS SUBMITTED:

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON

b7C

Former Justice of the Supreme Court Arthur Goldberg called. He said he called because this morning he was called by Senator (Hubert) Humphrey, through an associate of his, and then personally, saying that a letter had been sent to him dated April 16th and the letter purports to be on his, Goldberg's, stationery as United States Ambassador, addressed to the Israeli Ambassador by his first name which would indicate that "we" have a kind of conspiracy along with Dr. Henry Kissinger to serve their interests and not the United States Government's and it is a scandalous letter. I asked if any name were signed and Mr. Goldberg said it was signed with his name. I commented that it is a forgery. Mr. Goldberg said it is a complete forgery and he asked the Senator whether it had a letter of transmittal and the Senator said it did. I told Mr. Goldberg I was going to suggest we pick it up if the Senator had no objection to his turning it over.

Mr. Goldberg said he did not and that he, Goldberg, had written ~~the letter~~ as he thought it was appropriate to call me first and he called the Attorney General, who was unavailable. I commented the Attorney General is out of town today. Mr. Goldberg continued that he called the Secretary of State, who was in conference, and called Dr. Kissinger and then wrote an official letter to the Attorney General, and he was going to send me a copy, saying he requested an official investigation because it relates to the conduct of official business and the interests of our country. He said it looks like an American Ambassador conniving with the Israeli Ambassador and Dr. Kissinger in the interests of another country. I commented that it sounds like an anti-Semitic person.

Mr. Goldberg said that what Humphrey reports is that he wrote back to this gentleman and his reply was returned to writer as no such number, but he, Goldberg, had no alternative, he thought, because it started to get around. Mr. Goldberg said that the columnist, had called and he, Goldberg, thought he had no alternative but to have a press conference, release the letter, and release his request for an investigation as he thought he could not, unpleasant as it was, not do this.

Memorandum for Messrs. Tolson, Pelt, Rosen, Bishop October 1, 1971

I asked Mr. Goldberg if we could get hold of the letter. He said it is not an original letter, some kind of photostat or something. I asked him where the original was and he said he had no idea. I asked if it were sent to the Senator, and Mr. Goldberg said he did not know how it was manufactured. I commented it could be done. Mr. Goldberg said he did have some correspondence which is unclassified, that he dictated to his secretary during the same month of 1968 and the typewriter is completely different.

I said we would pick it up and asked where and Mr. Goldberg said at his office in Washington, 1101 17th Street, 11th floor, and he would be glad to hand over whatever he has and be of assistance. I told him I would have someone call on him and get the information and whatever he could furnish and start an official investigation. Mr. Goldberg said he would be delighted to cooperate in any way possible. I told him we would give it top priority. Mr. Goldberg said he wanted whoever did it found and sent to jail and I told him we would do our best to see he is taken out of circulation.

Mr. Goldberg thanked me and expressed his appreciation.

Mr. Rosen was advised of the above and that Washington Field Office should contact Mr. Goldberg at once.

Very truly yours,

GENERAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION

This concerns a letter dated 4/16/68 purportedly to be on former Justice Goldberg's stationery as United States Representative to the United Nations addressed to an Israeli official and signed "Arthur J. Goldberg". The letter, according to Justice Goldberg, is a complete forgery and was obtained from Senator Humphrey to be forwarded to the FBI Laboratory.

Attached advises that Justice Goldberg during re-interview by Special Agents of the FBI on 10/4/71 furnished a copy of his book "Defense of Freedom", the cover of which bears a facsimile of his signature. He also furnished samples of his handwriting.

Senator Humphrey, when interviewed on 10/4/71, made available a cover letter from one ~~David A. Price~~ Price, New York City, which served as a transmittal letter for the forged letter. Investigation has been unable to establish the whereabouts of one ~~David Price~~ at the return address used on the transmittal letter.

The Attorney General has been advised and intensive investigation continuing to resolve this matter.

Dear Dr. Kissinger:

On October 1, 1971, former Justice of the United States Supreme Court Arthur J. Goldberg advised he had received a call on that date from Senator Hubert H. Humphrey. Senator Humphrey advised Justice Goldberg that a letter had been sent to him dated April 16, 1968, purporting to be an Justice Goldberg's stationery as United States Representative to the United Nations, addressed to an Israeli official and signed "Arthur J. Goldberg." Justice Goldberg said the letter is a complete forgery, and this Bureau instituted immediate investigation in efforts to identify the individual who prepared the letter.

Justice Goldberg was interviewed on October 1, 1971, at which time he furnished a copy of the letter in question. The letter is addressed to "My Dear Abba" and indicates that Justice Goldberg entered into collusion with Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban and you as long ago as April, 1968, in order to place you in the position of Political Affairs Advisor to Richard M. Nixon should Mr. Nixon be elected President.

Justice Goldberg emphatically stated the letter is a forgery and that he had called a press conference for 2:30 p. m. , October 1, 1971, to denounce it as such. Justice Goldberg commented that he regards this letter as an attempt to "mess up" the present Middle East situation by making it appear that you, Justice Goldberg, and the United States Government "are in the pocket of the Israelis. "

The FBI is conducting intensive investigation in efforts to identify the person responsible for the preparation of the above-described forged letter. The Attorney General has been advised of our investigation into this matter.

In cases involving forgeries which are evidenced through poor line quality, retouching, and unnatural line breaks, original documents are essential for the examinations. In the event of further examination, it is suggested that the original of specimen Qc1 and enough known signatures of MR. ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG (8 to 16) to show the range of variation in his handwriting be obtained for comparison purposes.

Specimen Qc1 was not identified as a result of comparing it with material in the National Security File and Anonymous Letter File.

Result of examination:

Because of the lack of clarity in the photocopy, Qc1, the make and model of the typewriter employed in the preparation of this document could not be ascertained.

The style of the typewriting on specimen Qc1 is different from the style of typewriting on specimen Ks2; thus, these documents could not have been prepared on the same typewriter.

Whether or not the Goldberg signature on specimen Qc1 is a forgery could not be determined because of the limited known writing and lack of clarity in the photocopies of both the known and questioned signatures.

Specimens Qc1, K1 and Ks2 are returned herewith.
Photographs have been retained.

Attention: [redacted]

Dear [redacted] b7C

For the record:

b7C 1. Your letter to me of September 29, 1967, and your subsequent letter (undated) in answer to my letter of October 4, 1967:

The specific advice in your two letters comes not from you, but only through you, and is in fact from [redacted]. You relayed said specific advice at His Honor's direction.

2. [redacted] letter to me of October 16, 1967:

(a) As in Item No. 1 above, the specific advice and/or suggestions come not from [redacted] but from [redacted] and [redacted].

(b) My letter to you of October 15, 1967, calls you "cowardly." To that we must now add "despicable." Having learned that, for publication, I am compiling a record of Judges [redacted] and [redacted] contemptible fraud, you obviously are unwilling to again insert your name in that record. Your solution: pass the job of answering my letter to you on to your subordinate, the defenseless [redacted]. Despicable!

For the record: Your answer should reach me by October 30, 1967, please. Otherwise, I shall assume that you confirm the accuracy of the foregoing statements.

Dear [REDACTED]

My esteem for you was something special; so, now, is my contempt. Before preparing my appeal brief, I had read your [REDACTED]. For me, your article was more than instructive; it was inspiring. Therefore, on appearing before the Court of Appeals for oral argument, and finding that you were one of the three Judges on the bench, I was delighted.

My delight was short lived. Like your [REDACTED] the Court's ultimate opinion (I use the word loosely) was instructive — but hardly inspiring. It was nauseating, sickening — frightening. It was fraudulent. Demonstrably so. And I shall dedicate all my resources, time, and energies, for the rest of my life if need be, to the end that your judicial fraud (and that of your judicial co-conspirators) is publicly recognized.

Given our respective ages, and all other things being equal, you will predecease me. If in fact you do, and if, when you do, I have not yet brought about public recognition of your fraud, you will nonetheless know that I shall continue striving mightily toward that end. Even though you depart with honor, you will know that one day your name may well become synonymous with fraud — contemptible judicial fraud.

I pity your descendants. Especially those who bear your name.

Respectfully yours,

Judicial Fraud

Dear [REDACTED]:

In connection with my letters to Judges of this Court regarding their fraudulent decision, your letter of October 24, 1967, ends with:

"As I previously advised you, if you are dissatisfied (sic) with the judgment of this Court, you may seek judicial review of this Court's decision in the Supreme Court of the United States."

I am delighted, for two reasons: (1) I had erroneously believed that my time for seeking Supreme Court review had expired. (2) In an earlier letter you said: "This office is not authorized to furnish legal advice."

On the basis of your October 24, 1967, letter, I have started work on a document seeking review by the Supreme Court. This is a costly and time consuming procedure. Please advise: My right to seek Supreme Court review, of which you advise me in your letter of October 24, 1967 -- when does it expire?

b7C Also, since the decisions of both the District Court and the Court of Appeals are fraudulent, please state reasons, if any, that I may expect greater integrity from the Supreme Court. [REDACTED] please answer reflectively. I am frightened.

Dear [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] This name may well become synonymous with monstrous fraud. My condolences.

One of the nation's most dangerous and repugnant criminals is none other than your father, the Honorable Judge [REDACTED]. This I have already proved (See enclosure.). Next comes public recognition of that proof. Moreover, there is eminent authority for the belief that criminals of your father's type pose a greater threat to our institutions than the atomic bomb. In short, the Honorable Judge [REDACTED] is a menace to civilized society, an unspeakable monster.

But do I err in characterizing the Judge's intent? Rather than willful fraud, treachery, betrayal of the public trust, is your father guilty only of senility? No, but out of charity, let us say he is. No matter: on the judicial bench he is dangerous. In either event Judge [REDACTED] should be placed under custody — yours or that of a Federal Penitentiary.

My condolences.

Very truly yours,

Enclosure: Letter Oct. 28, 1967.

Case No. [REDACTED]

67C Your Honors:

Out of compassion, we might say that [REDACTED] is not fraudulent, only senile (See enclosure.). But in your cases, presumably, senility must be ruled out. You are the most loathsome of criminals. For civilized men and the rules they live by, you have only contempt.

Society will reciprocate that contempt when your depravity is publicly recognized. I will continue, of course, with my efforts to bring this about. I cannot do less.

Americans are dying on the other side of the world fighting foreign enemies. Surely, more insidious enemies such as you, in our very midst -- masquerading in black robes as holy untouchable dispensers of justice, living on Government money while undermining the Government's system of laws and protecting dangerous criminals within the Government -- must not go unchallenged.

Authority and prestige are on your side, Your Honors, but history is on mine.

67C [REDACTED]

Very truly yours,

ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG
INFORMATION CONCERNING

Reference made to Bureau call instant date from Assistant to the Director ROSEN, instructing WFO to have two agents contact Justice ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG concerning a forgery matter.

Special Agents [redacted] and [redacted] contacted Justice GOLDBERG at his law office, 1101 17th Street, Northwest, Washington, D.C., at which time he made available a xerox copy of a letter, purportedly on the stationery of The Representative of the United States of America to the United Nations, dated April 16, 1968, with the salutation "My Dear Abba", and bearing a signature of ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG.

He said that he received this letter on the morning of October 1, 1971, from [redacted] (who is a [redacted]) to Senator HUBERT H. HUMPHREY of Minnesota. The former indicated that the Senator had received a copy of the "My Dear Abba" letter, and appeared to be quite shocked at its import. Copy of the "My Dear Abba" letter attached.

In summary, the "My Dear Abba" letter indicates that Justice GOLDBERG entered into a collusion with Israeli Foreign Minister ABBA EBAN and Dr. HENRY A. KISSINGER as long ago as April, 1968, in order to place Dr. KISSINGER in a position of Political Affairs Advisor to RICHARD M. NIXON, should he be elected President.

Mr. GOLDBERG stated emphatically that the letter is an out and out forgery, and that he called a press conference at 2:30 p.m., October 1, 1971, to denounce it as such.

Justice GOLDBERG said he made a statement to the Press, which he feels could be misconstrued. The Justice, in commenting on the forgery, said to the Press he had called Director HOOVER to discuss the matter and that the Director was unavailable. He informed interviewing Agents that he holds the Director in high esteem, and that the record should reflect that the Bureau responded quickly to his call. If necessary, he will be happy to inform the Press, should it become an issue. Prior to the press conference he had unsuccessfully endeavored to reach the Director, and he assumed that he was out of town. However, he spoke with the Director immediately after the press conference.

Justice GOLDBERG informed interviewing Agents that he regards the "My Dear Abba" letter as an attempt to "mess up" the present Middle East situation, by making it look like Dr. KISSINGER, Justice GOLDBERG and our government "are in the pocket of the Israelis". He also stated that he feels it is definitely connected to the Middle East debate to be held soon at the United Nations in New York, regarding the Middle East situation. Justice GOLDBERG considers the "My Dear Abba" letter a criminal act, inasmuch as he said it is a blatant forgery which purports to be an official United States Government document, which relates to his activities as the United States Ambassador to the United Nations.

Justice GOLDBERG said that the "My Dear Abba" letter is untypical of his style of writing. He pointed out that he has known Foreign Minister EBAN for many years and has consistently addressed him as AUBREY or by his official title; the letter is ungrammatical; words are omitted; and many of the phrases in the letter sound to him as "Chinese"; the style of type is different to that which he consistently used in his office at the United Nations. Because of the impact he feels that the "My Dear Abba" letter could have on the Middle East situation; because he regards it as a criminal act; and because of the mention of Dr. HENRY A. KISSINGER, he contacted the Director of the FBI, Dr. HENRY A. KISSINGER, Assistant Secretary of State JOSEPH SISCO, Senator HUBERT H. HUMPHREY, noting that he was unsuccessful in reaching the Attorney General and the Secretary of State.

b7C During the course of these contacts, Justice GOLDBERG was himself contacted by ~~_____~~ ^{D.C.} Columnist for the ~~_____~~ who advised that he, too, had received a copy of the "My Dear Abba" letter, and indicated he contemplates writing a column concerning the letter to possibly appear ~~_____~~

With respect to his conversation with Senator HUMPHREY, Justice GOLDBERG advised that the Senator received the letter in an envelope bearing the return address "DAVID PRICE, 26 West Street, New York, New York". Senator HUMPHREY addressed a reply to PRICE, in which he termed the letter "shocking and unbelievable". The Senator's response was subsequently returned to his office by the United States Postal Service, bearing the stamp "Return to Writer; No such Number".

The "My Dear Abba" letter, when originally received by Senator HUMPHREY, was accompanied by a letter of transmittal which is available in the Senator's office.

b1 In addition to those people indicated above, Justice GOLDBERG said he felt it incumbent upon him, as a matter of courtesy, to notify the Israeli Embassy of the "My Dear Abba" letter. [REDACTED]

b1 [REDACTED] Justice GOLDBERG furnished interviewing Agents the attached copy of the letter he directed to the Attorney General today. The second paragraph of the letter indicates that the Justice considers the letter a forgery, and that he requests an investigation so that the identity of the forger can be exposed and appropriate criminal procedures initiated against him. The letter further states that the request is in the interest of our government, since the letter relates to an important phase of our country's foreign policy, i.e., the situation in the Middle East.

The Justice furnished to interviewing Agents a carbon copy of a letter dated February 12, 1968, dictated by the Justice, to the "Washington Post" newspaper. He requested that the letter be returned for his files upon completion of investigation. The Justice said that this letter, which is also attached to instant airtel, was written on the typewriter used by his secretary at the United Nations. He submitted the letter as evidence that the typing is different from the enclosed "My Dear Abba" letter. Although he had two secretaries, who used different typewriters, he said that the February 12, 1968 letter is typical of both typewriters. Casual perusal of the "My Dear Abba" letter and the GOLDBERG letter to the "Washington Post" indicates that they were obviously not typed on the same machine.

During the course of the interview, Mr. Justice GOLDBERG received a telephone call from Mr. W. C. SULLIVAN of the FBI, at which time the Justice, in brief, described the "My Dear Abba" letter. He pointed out to Mr. SULLIVAN the presence of interviewing Agents. At the conclusion of his conversation with Mr. SULLIVAN, the Justice said that Mr. SULLIVAN had returned a call which he had previously made for Mr. SULLIVAN, in the absence of the Director.

~~SECRET~~

RECOMMENDATIONS

It is recommended that the FBI Laboratory examine the "My Dear Abba" letter and determine the make of type-writer on which it was prepared; that consideration be given to comparing the signature on the "My Dear Abba" letter with that appearing on the letter to the Attorney General, dated October 1, 1971, keeping in mind that each letter is a xerox copy and that the Justice opined that the "My Dear Abba" letter signature could be a stamped one.

GENERAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION

Attached concerns the forged and scurrilous letter purportedly written by former Justice Goldberg. Letter indicates Goldberg, Dr. Kissinger and the U. S. Government are "in the pocket of the Israelis." Washington Field Office (WFO) interviewed Mr. Goldberg 10/1/71 and obtained copy of letter which was received by Senator Humphrey.

While Agents interviewing Mr. Goldberg, former Assistant to the Director Sullivan returned a call which Mr. Goldberg had previously made to Sullivan when the Director was unavailable earlier. Mr. Goldberg briefly described the content of the forged letter and pointed out that he was then being contacted by Bureau Agents.

b7C It has been determined that [redacted] secretary in Mr. Rosen's Office, received a call on 10/1/71 from a secretary to a Mr. Goldberg and upon being informed Mr. Sullivan was not available, the caller left a number and requested Sullivan call Mr. Goldberg. Sullivan called in later and talked to [redacted] concerning his pay check and asked if he had received any personal calls. [redacted] told him about the call from a Mr. Goldberg's office since there was no indication this pertained to an official matter. [redacted] advised she did not know who Mr. Goldberg was. All personnel in Mr. Rosen's Office have been instructed to not accept or relay any messages to Sullivan personal or otherwise.

b7C WFO has been instructed to expedite all phases of this investigation, including interviewing Senator Humphrey and his [redacted] in order to obtain the envelope this letter was mailed in and any other information of pertinence to the investigation. Our Laboratory is examining the forged letter to determine the make of the typewriter and will examine Mr. Goldberg's signature on the letter to determine if it is a forgery.

THE REPRESENTATIVE OF THE

April 16, 1968

My Dear Abbas:

Since our last meeting I succeeded in consulting several influential people here with whom I have extensively discussed the matter of our interest. I am glad to inform you that the summary of my talks proved once again that despite some differences of opinion, with regard to a variety of problems we are faced with, our people are united when it comes to vital questions concerning the fulfillment of our objective.

Let me now add certain specific comments to elaborate the point. The development of events indicates clearly that Richard Nixon has the chance to win. I share your opinion of Nixon; he is not a personality that would suit the greatness of this country, but after all, he is the best person in view of our goals.

Here we all have concluded that amongst the possible candidates mentioned by you Dr. Henry Kissinger of Harvard will be the most suitable man. I have no hesitation in saying that he will spare no efforts to conduct our affairs with the highest skill and the deepest devotion to our sacred cause. The position of political advisor to the President will create for us the one of thousand chances to have direct influence upon the Chief Executive and his decisions. Undoubtedly, Henry is quite competent man and he will have no trouble with the bureaucrats of the State Department. The key proviso in this plan is not too high opinion on Nixon previously expressed by Henry. I have no idea whether Nixon is aware of it, but I have the assurances of R. that the possible obstacles would be overcome.

As you know Henry is on good terms with Rockefeller so he has a good standing in the GOP. His well known pro-German feelings will play a helpful role in concealing his links with our case what for understandable reason must not be exposed.

I need not assure you that the same way I personally defended your cause, which is also ours, all of us will spare no efforts to achieve this aim so vital for the existence and security of Israel.

With warmest feelings,

Arthur J. Goldberg

The Honorable John Mitchell
Attorney General of the United States Department of Justice
Washington, D. C.

Dear General Mitchell:

I wish to direct to your official attention the enclosed letter which apparently is being circulated and which purports to be an official letter of mine during my tenure as Representative of the United States of America to the United Nations.

The letter is a forgery, and I therefore request an investigation so that the identity of the forger can be exposed and appropriate criminal proceedings initiated against him.

I make this request in the interests of our government since the letter relates to an important phase of our country's foreign policy, i.e., the situation in the Middle East.

The letter was first called to my attention this morning, and, immediately upon its receipt, I attempted to communicate with you but was advised that you were out of the city.

I also telephoned Director J. Edgar Hoover, of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, but he, too, was unavailable today.

Inasmuch as the letter, as I have indicated, relates to the foreign policy of the country, I also telephoned Secretary of State Rogers, but he is in New York for conferences at the United Nations. However, I spoke with Assistant Secretary of State Joseph Sisco, who is in charge of this area and advised him of the contents of the letter.

The Honorable John Mitchell

I have spoken to Dr. Kissinger and asked him to advise the President that the letter is a complete fabrication.

It goes without saying that I shall fully cooperate with the government in its investigation of this spurious and scandalous document.

Sincerely yours

Dear Russell:

This is a fan letter to let you know how much I enjoyed reading your statement on dissent which appeared in yesterday's Post.

I believe it to be the finest statement which has been made on this much discussed subject including my own inadequate expressions.

I don't know whether the Post follows the practice of reprinting an article such as this in pamphlet form for even wider distribution than the paper affords. If it does, I would hope that it can be done in this instance.

b7C On October 5, 1971, Washington Field Office furnished the Laboratory with a photocopy of a typewritten disputed letter dated 4/16/68 which intimates that Mr. Arthur J. Goldberg, Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban and Dr. Henry Kissinger conspired to have Dr. Kissinger appointed to the position of Political Affairs Advisor to the President. Mr. Goldberg has declared this letter a forgery. This photocopy of the disputed letter, which was obtained from Senator Hubert H. Humphrey, was accompanied by a second, typewritten cover letter with a return name and address of "David A. Price, 54 E. 26 Street, New York, N. Y." Price, whose identity is unknown, allegedly transmitted the disputed letter to Senator Humphrey. Exemplars of typewriting from the typewriter of a suspect, [REDACTED] who, in the past, has written derogatory letters to Mr. Goldberg, and exemplars of Mr. Goldberg's signature were also submitted to the Laboratory.

Although lack of clarity in the photocopy of the disputed letter would not permit a definite conclusion being reached, some characteristics in the style of the typewriting indicate that it may have been prepared on an Olympia typewriter equipped with elite type. Such typewriters are manufactured in West Germany.

Memorandum to Mr. Conrad
Re: Impersonation of Arthur J. Goldberg
while U. S. Representative to United Nations

b7C

It was determined that the letter from the unidentified individual David A. Price was prepared on an IBM Selectric typewriter equipped with Scribe style of type. Examination further disclosed that neither the disputed letter nor the Price letter were prepared on the typewriter of suspect [REDACTED]

Because of lack of clarity in the photocopy of the disputed letter, no conclusion was reached regarding the genuine or forged nature of the Goldberg signature thereon nor of the manner in which it was prepared.

The disputed letter and the Price letter are being transmitted to the Latent Fingerprint Section of the Identification Division for further examination.

Washington Field Office is being apprised of the result of the Laboratory examination.

RECOMMENDATION:

FBI File No. -
Lab. No. D-711005185 IX
D-711005186 IX

Specimens received 10/8/71

- Qc1 Photocopy of one-page typewritten letter dated April 16, 1968, beginning "My Dear Abba: Since our last..." (Additional copy of letter previously received)
- Q2 Envelope postmarked "NEW YORK, NY NOV PM 16 SEP 1971," and bearing typewritten address "The Honorable Robert H. Humphrey, The United States Senate, Washington, D.C. 20510"
- Q3 One-page typewritten letter dated 8/15/71, beginning "Sir: Shocked and ashamed I am, I forward..."
- K3 Two sheets of paper bearing known handwriting of ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG
- 67C K4 Photocopies of five typewritten letters dated 10/20/67, 10/28/67, 10/30/67, 1/2/68, and 1/2/68, signed [REDACTED] or [REDACTED]
- K5 One book entitled "The Defense of Freedom," the cover of which bears a reproduction of the signature "Arthur J. Goldberg"

Result of examination:

Lack of sufficient clarity in the photocopy Qc1 would not permit the make and model of the typewriter on which the original of this document was prepared to be determined with any degree of certainty. From such examination as could be made, however, it is possible that it may have been an Olympia typewriter equipped with elite type. Olympia typewriters are manufactured in West Germany.

It was determined that the typewriting on specimens Q2 and Q3 was prepared on an IBM Selectric typewriter equipped with Scribe elite style of type spaced ten letters to the inch. This style of type is radically different from the typewriting style of specimen Qc1.

It was determined that the typewriting on specimens Qc1, Q2 and Q3 was not prepared on the typewriter employed in the preparation of specimen Kc3.

The stamp on specimen Q2 was determined to have been derived from a roll of stamps.

Because of the lack of clarity in the photocopy no conclusion was reached regarding the forged or genuine nature of the signature on specimen Qc1 as a result of comparing it with the signatures of specimens K4 and K5. Although some differences indicate that the signature on specimen K5 was not traced, it is quite possible that such a signature could have served as a pattern signature from which others, including that on specimen Qc1, may have been simulated. From the copy available, it is not possible to ascertain the manner in which the signature on specimen Qc1 was prepared.

Specimens K3, K4 and K5 are returned herewith. Photographs of specimens Qc1, Q2, Q3, and K3 have been retained.

The administrative section of all reports in this case are to contain the following statements: By letter dated 10/7/71, the Department of Justice requested that results of investigations are to be furnished directly to the Criminal Division of the Department by furnishing the Bureau an extra copy of each report for dissemination directly to the Department. The Bureau has instructed that this case is to receive preferred investigative attention, and the Bureau and interested offices kept currently advised of all pertinent developments

b7C

The examination of the [REDACTED] copy of Qc1 by the Xerox Corporation Laboratory was coordinated with Washington Field Office and the Supervisor, Impersonation Desk.

b7C

Paragraph regarding administrative section of reports was added per Supervisor [REDACTED] Division Desk.

67C The [redacted] copy of specimen Qc1 was determined to have been reproduced from the same original or copy from which the copy of Qc1 obtained from Senator Hubert H. Humphrey was reproduced.

67C The copy of Qc1 obtained from Mr. Goldberg appears to be more copies away from the original from which it was produced than are the copies of Qc1 obtained from [redacted] and Senator Humphrey.

The stationery of specimen K7 is different from the stationery of the copies Qc1.

Although the symbol and printing comprising the letterhead of the copies of Qc1 appear similar to the symbol and printing of the letterhead stationery K8, when the symbol and printing of the copies were enlarged to conform to the size of the symbol and printing of the K8 stationery, the overall size of the stationery represented by the enlargement is considerably larger (8.23" x 13") than the K8 stationery.

Discrepant characteristics in the K10 signature and the Goldberg signatures on the copies of Qc1 indicate that an Autopen matrix signature such as that represented by specimen K10 was not traced in the preparation of the Qc1 signature. A signature such as that of specimen K10 could, however, serve as a pattern from which another signature such as that on Qc1 may have been simulated.

67C The [redacted] copy of specimen Qc1 contains no watermark or other special feature through which the source of the paper used for the reproduction could be ascertained.

Specimens K8 through K10 are returned herewith. Appropriate photographs have been retained.

By letter dated 10/7/71, the Department requested the results of investigation are to be furnished directly to the Criminal Division of the Department by furnishing the Bureau an extra copy of each report for dissemination directly to the Department. The Bureau instructed this case is to receive preferred investigative attention and the Bureau and interested offices kept currently advised of all pertinent developments.

It is noted that referenced Bureau telephone call to WFO on 10/8/71, instructed WFO to submit an investigative report concerning this matter by 10/12/71. Therefore, this report contains the results of investigation received by WFO up to COB, 10/8/71.

b7C By communication dated 10/4/71, the New York Office advised that their indices contained nothing identifiable with [REDACTED]

By letter to WFO dated 10/5/71, the FBI Laboratory advised that the letter beginning, "My Dear Abba" was not identified as a result of comparing it with material from the National Security file and anonymous letter file.

By letter to WFO dated 10/6/71, the FBI Laboratory advised that "Although specimen Qc1 appears to be a reduced reproduction of the original, this speculation can only be confirmed with some standard of measurement such as an original sheet of letterhead stationery of the type used in the preparation of the disputed letter." In this regard, it is noted that referenced New York teletype to the Bureau and WFO, dated 10/7/71, reflects that samples of letterhead stationery were obtained from the U.S. Mission to the United Nations and were being forwarded to the FBI Laboratory.

Synopsis:

b7C On 10/1/71, Justice ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG, currently practicing law in WDC, received xerox copy of a letter purportedly on stationery of Representative of the United States to the United Nations, dated 4/16/68, beginning "My Dear Abba", and signed "ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG." The letter reflected Justice GOLDBERG entered into collusion with Israeli Foreign Minister ABBA EBAN and Dr. HENRY A. KISSINGER in April, 1968, in order to place Dr. KISSINGER in position of Political Affairs Advisor to RICHARD M. NIXON, should he be elected President. Justice GOLDBERG described letter as out and out forgery and as a criminal act. Justice GOLDBERG received copy of letter from [REDACTED] to Senator HUBERT H. HUMPHREY. [REDACTED] had received letter from Senator HUMPHREY and [REDACTED] syndicated columnist, received copy of letter along with a cover letter. Justice GOLDBERG furnished copy of letter in question on 10/1/71 along with copy of other correspondence. On 10/4/71, Justice GOLDBERG furnished handwriting samples and copy of his book, the cover of which bears a facsimile of his signature. He noted one [REDACTED] of Baltimore, Md., has directed harrassing letters to him in past. On 10/4/71, Senator HUMPHREY furnished his copy of "My Dear Abba" letter along with cover letter and accompanying envelope. Envelope bore return name and address UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE, 1111 Broadway, New York, N.Y. Senator HUMPHREY advised he had directed a reply to foregoing address but reply was returned because "no such number". Copy of envelope and cover letter included. [redacted] interviewed on 10/4/71, and furnished details of his handling of letter in question. Investigation at New York disclosed no such address as 54 East 25th Street, New York. New York telephone directory reflected one [redacted] residing on [redacted] New York. Investigation revealed [redacted] employed as [redacted] unavailable for interview on 10/7/71.

[redacted] at New York stated no hand signature stamp used by the Justice and that his autopen currently located at USDS, WDC. Program device for autopen personally observed by Buagent at USDS on 10/8/71 where it has been secured since 1968. [redacted] interviewed on 10/7/71, and furnished his copy of "My Dear Abba" letter. [redacted] had destroyed accompanying cover letter and envelope. FBI Laboratory reports reflect typewriter used in preparation of "My Dear Abba" letter possibly Olympia typewriter with elite type. No definite conclusions because of lack of clarity. Typewriting on envelope and cover letter furnished by Senator HUMPHREY determined to have been prepared on IBM Selectric typewriter equipped with scribe elite style of type. FBI Identification Division advised 7 latent fingerprints of value developed on papers furnished by Senator HUMPHREY. None were identical with known fingerprints of [redacted]. Aforementioned [redacted] interviewed at New York on 10/8/71 and unable to offer any positive information concerning captioned matter. [redacted]

[redacted] interviewed same date and verified no signature stamps were utilized for Justice's signature. [redacted] also stated Justice GOLDBERG's autopen machine located at USDS, WDC. Investigation continuing.

PREDICATION:

This report is predicated upon receipt of information from FBI Headquarters on October 1, 1971, that the signature of Justice ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG had been forged on a letter reportedly written on stationery of The Representative of the United States to the United Nations.

DETAILS: AT WASHINGTON, D. C.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 10/7/71

ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG, former Associate Justice, United States Supreme Court, and former United States Ambassador to the United Nations, provided the following information:

b7C

The morning of October 1, 1971, he received from [REDACTED] to Senator HUBERT H. HUMPHREY of Minnesota, a note which enclosed and called his attention to a xerox copy of a letter received by Senator HUMPHREY, purportedly on the stationery of The Representative of the United States of America to the United Nations, dated April 16, 1968, with the salutation "My Dear ABBA" and bearing the signature "ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG." Justice GOLDBERG made available to interviewing agents copies of both documents.

He stated that the purported letter of April 16, 1968, is an out-and-out forgery, and he had held a press conference at 2:30 pm on October 1, 1971, to denounce it as such. It was not written by himself nor anyone authorized by him.

He characterized the letter as an attempt to say in effect that he, the Foreign Minister of Israel ABBA EBAN, and Dr. HENRY KISSINGER, Foreign Policy Advisor to the President of the United States, were involved in some sort of conspiracy. He feels that the letter was an attempt to mess up the present Middle East situation by making it look like Dr. KISSINGER, Justice GOLDBERG and the United States Government are in the pocket of the Israelis. He thinks it is definitely connected to the Middle East debate which will be held soon at the United Nations in New York.

Justice GOLDBERG cited the following reasons to support his statement that the letter is a forgery: It is untypical of his style of writing. He has, during many years of acquaintance, consistently addressed Foreign Minister EBAN as ABBEY or by his official title. The letter is ungrammatical. Words are apparently omitted. There are spelling errors. Many of the phrases in the letter sound strange to him, "like

Interviewed on 10/1/71 at Washington, D. C. File # WFO 47-10253

SAs [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] Date dictated 10/4/71

Chinese." The style of type is different than that used on his office typewriters in his United Nations office. There was no classification stamp on the letter, which it would certainly have had, had it been authentic. At the alleged time of writing RICHARD M. NIXON had not been elected President of the United States, and to his knowledge, Dr. KISSINGER had not been mentioned as a Foreign Policy Advisor.

b7C Justice GOLDBERG advised that he contacted the following people in conducting his own inquiries about the letter and in requesting an official investigation: [REDACTED] Senator HUBERT H. HUMPHREY, Dr. HENRY A. KISSINGER, Director of the FBI J. EDGAR HOOVER, Assistant Secretary of State JOSEPH SISCO, [REDACTED] at the United Nations), and [REDACTED] at the United Nations, now at New York, New York.

After his press conference, Justice GOLDBERG advised that he then called the Israeli Ambassador to the United States, YITSHAK RABIN, as a matter of courtesy, to advise him of the letter. He did not contact the Israeli Foreign Minister who happens to be in the U.S. at the present time. He advised that he related to Ambassador RABIN the substance of the letter, but did not read the text to him.

b7C Justice GOLDBERG noted that during the morning of October 1, 1971, [REDACTED] columnist for [REDACTED] contacted him to advise that he [REDACTED] too, had received a xerox copy of the purported letter.

Justice GOLDBERG exhibited his date book for April 16, 1968, which reflected that he had had no meetings with any parties mentioned in the letter nor with any Israeli officials, which might have prompted the purported letter.

Justice GOLDBERG stated that he had determined that the purported letter of April 16, 1968, was received by the office of Senator HUMPHREY with a cover letter which is available in the Senator's office. Senator HUMPHREY sent a reply to [REDACTED] PRIOR, 100 East 42nd Street, New York, New York, the return address shown on the envelope. This reply was returned by the United States Postal Service marked "Return to Writer; No Such Number."

For comparison purposes, Justice GOLDBERG furnished a carbon copy of a letter dated February 12, 1968, dictated by him and typed by his secretary at the United Nations to the "Washington Post". He requested that the letter be returned for his files upon completion of investigation.

b7C

Justice GOLDBERG noted that he had a signature stamp, and [REDACTED] would know where it was. He also noted that he had furnished the publisher of a book he wrote a specimen of his signature for reproduction in the book.

b7C

Justice GOLDBERG noted that he has received a lot of "crank" mail and as a public official is resigned to personal libels, but he feels that this letter was connected to the United Nations debate, could do harm to the United States, and he must protest the imputation that he served a government other than the United States Government. He noted that since he was Secretary of Labor, he has been attacked repeatedly as a "criminal" by a man from Baltimore by the name of [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] was an employee of the Department of Labor when GOLDBERG was Secretary of Labor and was fired by a subordinate of then-Secretary GOLDBERG. Justice GOLDBERG has spoken with the United States Attorney in Baltimore to ask that these attacks be prevented. He could provide no other suspects.

Justice ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG was contacted at his law office at 1101 17th Street, N.W., Washington, D. C. (WDC), and furnished the following additional information:

b7C Concerning the letter dated April 16, 1968, beginning "My Dear Abba" and signed "Arthur J. Goldberg", it is quite possible that the signature thereon is either a stamp or was traced from his signature. In this regard, when he was United States (US) Representative to the United Nations (UN), there were a number of stamps bearing his signature. The exact number of these stamps and their present location are unknown to him but [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] would probably be able to provide this information. Both of [REDACTED] were employed by him at the UN and both [REDACTED] upon his departure from the UN. They can be contacted in care of [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] New York City, New York.

Also, one of his books, The Defenses of Freedom, bears a facsimile of his signature on its outer cover.

Justice GOLDBERG noted that the following points further verify the forgery of the letter in question:

- (1) The size of the type is quite small.
- (2) His secretaries indented new paragraphs and new paragraphs in the letter in question are not indented.
- (3) The insignia on the letterhead stationery is not distinct.
- (4) Any letter to a foreign Ambassador would bear a classification, such as "Confidential" or "Restricted".

(5) Portions of the letter are not grammatically correct.

(6) The terminology is not what he would utilize.

(7) In the third paragraph of the letter, the word "proviso" is misspelled.

(8) He never knew Doctor KISSINGER well enough to call him "HENRY".

(9) In April, 1968, there was no way of knowing for certain that RICHARD NIXON would be the Republican nominee for President of the United States.

(10) The closing reflected in the letter in question is certainly not one which would be used in a formal diplomatic communication. Even in an informal letter, he would close with "Cordially yours".

b7c Justice GOLDBERG further advised that over the years he has been subjected to the normal "crank" mail. He noted that one [REDACTED] of Baltimore, Maryland, has written several harrassing letters to him in connection with his [REDACTED] dismissal from the Department of Labor when he (Justice GOLDBERG) was Secretary of Labor.

b7c Justice GOLDBERG also advised that he could think of no reason why copies of the letter in question were furnished Senator HUBERT HUMPHREY and [REDACTED] Columnist [REDACTED]

Justice GOLDBERG furnished samples of his signature and handwriting and made available a copy of his book The Defenses of Freedom. It was noted that Justice GOLDBERG is right-handed.

By communication dated October 4, 1971, samples of Justice GOLDBERG's handwriting and a copy of the aforementioned book were forwarded to the FBI Laboratory for appropriate examination.

United States Senator HUBERT H. HUMPHREY was contacted at his office, Room 232, Old Senate Office Building, Washington, D. C. (WDC). It should be noted that the Senator was extremely busy, having just returned from Minnesota. He was enroute to a roll call vote at the time he was contacted.

After being advised of the official identities of the interviewing agents and the nature of the inquiry, Senator HUMPHREY furnished the following papers:

An envelope addressed to himself and postmarked September 16, 1971, at New York, New York. This envelope bore a return address of "DAVID A. PRICE, 54 E. 26th Street, New York, N.Y."

A letter dated September 15, 1971, from the aforementioned PRICE. This letter made reference to an enclosed "xerox copy of a document which clearly proves who is really behind the decisions on our policies in the Middle East."

A xerox copy of a letter dated April 16, 1968, to "My Dear Abba" from "ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG". This letter is on stationery reflecting the seal of the United States and the wording "The Representative of the United States of America to the United Nations".

Senator HUMPHREY noted that he had addressed a reply to "DAVID A. PRICE" at the above New York address but that the letter was returned to his office stamped "Return to Writer; No Such Number". Senator HUMPHREY stated that he is not familiar with anyone by the name "DAVID A. PRICE."

Sir:

Shocked and ashamed as I am, I forward to you the xerox copy of a document which clearly proves who is really behind the decisions on our policies in the Middle East.

I am a Jew born and brought up in this country. I am not linked with any organization or movement for peace. However, I strongly believe war is no solution and peace is the most important for all of us. I am convinced that the Arabs and the Israelis may be good neighbors. I wish prosperity and well being for both.

As an American citizen I cannot accept any outside influence on my Government. It is neither in the interest of America nor the State of Israel. Such influence permits the shortsighted people to pursue the policy which may appear suicidal in its final results and creates obstacles on the road to a peaceful solution to this problem.

I hope you share both my feelings and opinion.

Sincerely yours,

David A. Friedman

[redacted] to United States Senator HUBERT H. HUMPHREY, was contacted at [redacted] Washington, D. C. (WDC). After being advised of the official identity of the interviewing agents and the nature of the inquiry, [redacted] furnished the following information:

On approximately September 23, 1971, a letter was received by his office from Senator HUMPHREY. This letter was dated April 16, 1968, and was to "My Dear Abba". The letter was signed "ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG" and indicated that Doctor HENRY KISSINGER had been selected by unnamed individuals to become RICHARD NIXON's political affairs advisor should Mr. NIXON be elected President. A return address on the envelope accompanying the letter reflected that the letter was from "DAVID A. PRICE, 54 E. 26th Street, New York, N.Y."

On or about September 21, 1971, Senator HUMPHREY wrote a reply to PRICE but this reply was subsequently returned to the Senator's office because the address listed by PRICE was fictitious.

b7C He [redacted] then sent a copy of this letter to Justice GOLDBERG who apparently received same on October 1, 1971. He [redacted] then returned the original copy of the letter to Senator HUMPHREY.

b7C [redacted] stated that he is not familiar with anyone named DAVID A. PRICE.. He was unable to provide any additional information concerning this matter.

AT NEW YORK, NEW YORK

By communication dated October 4, 1971, the New York Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) furnished the following information:

Physical observation of East 26th Street, New York City, by a Special Agent of the FBI, revealed no such address as "54 East 26th Street. This area includes a New York State Department of Motor Vehicles Office, Wholesale offices, Business offices and hotels. It also includes a park and a new skyscraper under construction.

A review of the Manhattan Telephone Directory reflected that one [REDACTED] resides at [REDACTED] Telephone number [REDACTED]. A review of Department of Motor Vehicles records at Albany, New York, disclosed that the aforementioned [REDACTED] was born [REDACTED] and described him as [REDACTED] eyes and as having a [REDACTED] license.

[REDACTED]

By communication dated October 7, 1971, the New York Division furnished the following additional information:

Further investigation has revealed that [REDACTED] is employed as [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was unavailable for interview but arrangements were being made to interview him at the earliest possible time.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] was interviewed and advised that she knew of no hand stamp or other reproduction of the signature of Justice GOLDBERG to exist during her association with him. [REDACTED] further advised that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] had authority to sign correspondence for Justice GOLDBERG and that no hand stamp was used. She stated that normally Justice GOLDBERG's full name was used in his signature on all correspondence. She noted that [REDACTED] was currently on vacation.

Two types of letterhead stationery and a copy of GOLDBERG's matrix autopen signature were obtained from the U.S. Mission to the United Nations for forwarding to the FBI Laboratory. The autopen is currently located at the U.S. Department of State, Washington, D. C.

It is noted that Justice GOLDBERG resigned as representative to the United Nations on April 25, 1968 and actually left the premises on June 24, 1968.

b7C

[REDACTED] further advised that the autopen device has been locked in a closet in Room 7316 at the State Department since it was transported from New York City in 1968.

GOLDBERG.

b7C

The device was a large horseshoe shaped piece of hard material, approximately one fourth inch thick, with an irregular but smooth shaped surface. It was approximately two and a half to three feet in diameter. [REDACTED] advised that the device has been locked in the closet during her tenure at the State Department. She noted that she has held her present position for approximately two years.

b7C

He is employed as a syndicated columnist and newsman and was formerly associated with [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] On approximately September 24, 1971, he received a letter addressed to him in care of [REDACTED] at [REDACTED]. The name "DAVID A. PRICE" appeared on the upper left hand side of the envelope, and he is unable to recall whether or not the envelope bore a return address.

b7C

Inside the envelope were the original of one letter and a Xeroxed copy of another. The original served as a cover letter for the Xeroxed letter. This [REDACTED] name possibly appeared on the left lower edge of the cover letter.

b7C

[REDACTED] advised that he destroyed the envelope and the cover letter but that he retained the Xeroxed letter. He made available the Xeroxed letter to the interviewing agents. The letter was dated April 16, 1968, and was typed on stationery of The Representative of the United States of America to the United Nations. It appeared to have been reduced in size from the original and indicated that ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG had conspired with ABBA EBAN in 1968 to place Dr. HENRY KISSINGER in the position of Political Affairs Advisor to RICHARD NIXON should Mr. NIXON be elected president. The letter began "My Dear ABBA" and was signed "ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG."

b7C

[REDACTED] further advised that he suspected that the letter was mailed to him inasmuch as he has toured Egypt and is "at least sympathetic" toward some of the causes involved. He stated that in his opinion the "My Dear ABBA" letter may have been written by Egyptian or Jordanian Intelligence Personnel. He noted that only his fingerprints should appear on the letter.

b7C

[REDACTED] was unable to provide any additional information concerning this matter and noted that, to his knowledge, only he and Senator HUMPHREY had received copies of the letter in question.

DATE: October 12, 1971

FROM : C. F. Downing

SUBJECT: Impersonation of Arthur J. Goldberg
While U. S. Representative to the United Nations, 4/16/68

On October 7, 1971, Washington Field Office furnished the Laboratory with an additional photocopy of a typewritten letter dated 4/16/68. This letter bearing what Mr. Arthur J. Goldberg declared to be a forgery of his signature, intimates that Mr. Goldberg Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban and Dr. Henry Kissinger conspired to have Dr. Kissinger appointed to the position of Political Affairs Advisor to the President. This, the third copy of this letter submitted to the Laboratory, was obtained from syndicated columnist [REDACTED] Washington, D. C.

On October 8, 1971, Washington Field Office furnished the Laboratory with samples of letterhead stationery of the Representative of the United States to the United Nations and a sample of Mr. Goldberg's Autopen-matrix signature.

The Laboratory determined that the [REDACTED] photocopy of the letter had been reproduced from the same original or copy from which an earlier photocopy of the letter furnished by Senator Hubert H. Humphrey was reproduced. Characteristics were also noted in the [REDACTED] and Senator Humphrey photocopies of the letter which indicate that it may be possible to identify the particular copier on which these photocopies were prepared.

Memorandum to Mr. Conrad
Re: Impersonation of Arthur J. Goldberg
While U. S. Representative to the United Nations, 4/16/68
47-55172

Although the symbol and the printing comprising the letterhead of the photocopies of the letter appear similar to the symbol and printing comprising the letterhead of some of the stationery of the U. S. Representative to the United Nations, the Laboratory could not reach any conclusions regarding authenticity of the stationery on which the original of the letter was prepared because of the indistinct character of the photocopy.

It was determined that the Arthur J. Goldberg signature on the photocopies of the letter was not traced from one of his Autopen matrix signatures. However, such a signature may have served as a pattern from which another signature such as that which appears on the letter could have been simulated.

b7C Pursuant to coordination with the Investigative Division the [REDACTED] copy of the letter is being sent to the Rochester, New York, Resident Agency where it will be delivered to the Xerox Corporation Laboratory for further examination after which it will be treated for latent fingerprints.

Washington Field Office is being apprised of the result of the Laboratory examination.

This concerns the impersonation case involving the forged and scurrilous letter purportedly written by former Justice Arthur J. Goldberg. The letter indicated Mr. Goldberg, Dr. Kissinger and the United States Government are "in the pocket of the Israelis." Washington Field Office (WFO) interviewed Mr. Goldberg 10/1/71 and obtained a copy of a letter which was received by Senator Humphrey. When interviewed on 10/4/71, Senator Humphrey made available a cover letter from one David A. Price, New York City, which served as a transmittal letter for the forged letter. Investigation has been unable to establish the whereabouts of one David A. Price at the return address in New York used on the transmittal letter. Mr. Goldberg also advised that [redacted] of the [redacted] had received a copy of this letter. [redacted] when interviewed by WFO with Bureau authority, on 10/7/71, stated that in his opinion the letter in question was written by Egyptian or Jordanian intelligence personnel. [redacted] was considered as a suspect in this matter as he is a former disgruntled employee of the Department of Labor who has written letters to judges of the United States Court of Appeals referring to Mr. Goldberg as a "criminal." Attached concerns investigation being conducted by the field in an attempt to identify the writer of the letter which Mr. Goldberg stated is a forgery. The Attorney General and Dr. Kissinger were advised by letters dated 10/4/71 of our investigation to resolve this matter.

b7C In this regard, WFO is exploring the possibility that the letter in question may be the product of intelligence personnel of certain Arabic countries, as suggested by columnist [REDACTED]. Along this same line, should the Xerox Corporation Laboratory be able to identify the copier utilized in reproducing the letter, WFO will take steps to determine the types of copiers utilized by the establishments of various Arabic countries, particularly those located in New York City.

The same laboratory report reflected that Justice GOLDBERG's autopen matrix signature was not traced on the "My Dear Abba" letter, but could have served as a pattern from which another signature may have been simulated.

b7C An FBI Laboratory report dated 10/13/71, reflects that the known typing of [REDACTED] was not prepared on the typewriter employed in the preparation of the "My Dear Abba" letter, or in the preparation of the cover letter which was received by Senator HUBERT H. HUMPHREY.

WFO notes that WFO file 62-8656, captioned "Unsub; (Anonymous Letter postmarked Bridgeville, Pennsylvania, 10/2/62, addressed 'Justice ARTHUR GOLDBERG, Washington, D.C.') INFORMATION CONCERNING", concerned a typewritten letter to Justice GOLDBERG containing disparagements relative to the Justice's Jewish background. According to an FBI Laboratory report, dated 10/15/62 (Laboratory Number D-405312 DJ), typing on this letter "most closely matches the Laboratory standards for Royal elite style of type, spaced twelve characters per inch". No suspects were developed in this case, and it is not b7C When ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG arrived at the United States Mission, he did not ask [REDACTED] to purchase a matrix signature machine. Mr. GOLDBERG brought his own machine from the United States Supreme Court. [REDACTED] was in the practice of purchasing these machines for the United States Representatives. These matrix machines are made by the Alto Pen Company, 3121 Washington Boulevard, Arlington, Virginia, telephone number 525-8482.

b7C When Mr. GOLDBERG left the United States Mission he took with him his signature machine. Mr. GOLDBERG usually signed his own correspondence. On occasion, Mr. GOLDBERG would authorize [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] to sign his mail. Mr. GOLDBERG never used a rubber stamp to effect his signature.

b7C If the outgoing correspondence was of a routine nature, the correspondence would be sent to the Office of the Secretary, Department of State, Washington, D.C. The matrix machine was kept and operated by [REDACTED]. When she was doing routine office letters, she typed and signed these letters.

The engraved stationery used by United States Representatives to the United Nations is produced by Capital Side Engraving Company, 1215 H Street, Northwest, Washington, D.C. The printed stationery is produced by the Government Printing Office, 341 Ninth Avenue, Manhattan, New York.

DATE: 11/10/71

b7C Re WFO airtel to Bureau, dated 10/29/71.

Enclosed for Identification Division is [REDACTED] copy of Qc 1. Enclosed for WFO is letter dated 10/15/71 to Senator HUMPHREY from DAVID A. PRICE, and "Dear Abba" letter received by Senator HUMPHREY.

b7C On 10/20/71, [REDACTED] Competitive Products Area, Xerox Corporation, Webster, N.Y., after examining Qc 1, advised the letter appears to have been reduced in size from the original during reproduction, to a size of 6" by 9½". He also advised that apparently two or more machines may have been utilized to make Qc 1 from the original, but could not speculate as to the type of machines used. He stated it appears the original document could have been a carbon of the original typed letter, due primarily to the "fill in" of the letters. In addition, he stated that Qc 1 during one phase of reproduction, was reproduced in a length-wise manner of travel. He stated no conclusion could be reached, however, if the size of the original document could be measured, it may be possible to determine through percent of reduction, at least one machine utilized. He concluded eight machines presently in production, have the capability of reduction.

The above enclosures to WFO have been subjected to latent fingerprint examination. Past experience by examination at Xerox reflects no examination can be conducted due

DETAILS:

b7C It should be noted that the "Qc1" hereinafter referred to pertains to the copy of the "My Dear ABBA" letter which was previously furnished by columnist [REDACTED]

AT WEBSTER, NEW YORK

By communication dated November 10, 1971, the Buffalo Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation furnished the following information.

WFO 47-10253

67C On October 20, 1971, [REDACTED] Competitive Products Area, Xerox Corporation, Webster, New York, after examining Qc 1, advised the letter appears to have been reduced in size from the original during reproduction, to a size of six inches by nine and one half inches. He also advised that apparently two or more machines may have been utilized to make Qc 1 from the original, but could not speculate as to the type of machines used. He stated it appears the original document could have been a carbon of the original typed letter, due primarily to the "fill in" of the letters. In addition, he stated that Qc 1 during one phase of reproduction, was reproduced in a length-wise manner of travel. He stated no conclusion could be reached, however, if the size of the original document could be measured, it may be possible to determine through percent of reduction, at least one machine utilized. He concluded eight machines presently in production, have the capability of reduction.

It is noted that the "My Dear ABBA" letter, and the DAVID A. PRICE letter previously furnished by Senator HUBERT H. HUMPHREY were not deemed suitable for examination by the Xerox Corporation Laboratory since they had already been subjected to latent fingerprint examinations.

AT WASHINGTON, D.C.

By report dated November 22, 1971, the Identification Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation advised that one latent fingerprint of value was developed on the aforementioned Qc 1.

addressed "Justice ARTHUR GOLDBERG, Washington, D.C.")
INFORMATION CONCERNING

Enclosed herewith to Bureau are an anonymous letter and envelope in which it was received. Also, one autostat copy of each for information of the Pittsburgh Office.

On 10/8/62, [redacted] United States Supreme Court made available to SA [redacted] an anonymous typewritten letter, unaddressed, dated 10/1/62; also, an envelope in which the letter was contained, postmarked Bridgeville, Pennsylvania, 10/2/62, addressed Justice ARTHUR GOLDBERG, Washington, D.C., and marked "Personal". [redacted] obtained the anonymous communication from [redacted] to the Honorable ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG, Associate Justice, United States Supreme Court. He stated that although the letter does not contain any threats against Justice GOLDBERG, he is bringing it to the attention of the FBI as a matter of information. He does not desire the return of the letter.

The letter is anti-Semitic and contains scurrilous attacks on the Jewish people. The anonymous letter and envelope are transmitted herewith to the Bureau with the request that they be searched through the Anonymous Communications File. If no identification is effected, it is suggested that appropriate specimens of the typewritten letter be filed in the Anonymous Communications File for possible future reference.

One autostat copy of instant letter is being retained in the WFO file.

ENCLOSURE ATTACHED

No investigation of this matter is contemplated by WFO.

ENCLOSURE 105870 -/

10-1-62

So we have a new "honorable" judge--question is, is he like OTHER Jews? Without HONOR, SELF-RESPECT, COMPASSION FOR OTHERS?

Karl Marx, Lenin, Trotzky, Molotov (brother of equally murderous Rabbi), Vishinsky, Gerhardt Eisler ("pal" of our treacherous Eleanor), etc.etc.--all murderous Jews, LEADERS OF JEWS.

Golda, Ben-Gurion, Stearne Gang--all murderous Jews, LEADERS OF JEWS, rulers of Communist Israel. THESE are the heartless butchers that cruelly evicted nearly a million Arab & Negro men, women, children from their homes--to make way for incoming horde of Jew rats (that deserted birthland, but took wealth & knowledge accumulated there). Yes, Golda, Ben-Gurion, etc. are the very same Jews that cried so piteously to World for help against "cruel" Hitler--yet, show no mercy to OTHERS.

JEWS (Molotov, Malenkov, Malinovsky, etc) ordered butchery of 20-million Russian peasants during 30's; ordered slaughter of freedom-seeking Hungarians; maneuvered rape of gentle Tibet; WHERE is the end of horrors committed by Jewism?

JEWS betray, use 5th A, 5%; Jews head dope rings, racket, prostitution, pornography; JEWS control Industry (and milk it dry, escape to S. America, etc), control religion (Rabbis, minority, now tells MAJORITY, in our so-called Democracy--NO BIBLE); Jews control politics (Freeman, KNEW of $34-million STINK, Estes--but did nothing--typical of Jewism).

Labor, controlled mostly by Jews, sends oodles of money to Communist Israel--actually STEALING dues that belong to American workmen. Dual-allegiance Jews--WHAT IS IT? So now, we have a new Jew judge--will HE release more Commies, traitors, that are on trial? Will THIS Jew have PRIDE, SELF-RESPECT, DIGNITY? Or, will he be like OTHER Jews--that no one can trust.

Due to horrible acts of Jewism--WHO can trust a Jew? WHAT Jew can be trusted? WHY don't Rabbis, born in the U.S., CITIZENS of U.S.--denounce evil Communism? Is it because Jews ARE leaders of Communism--known more & more every day? WHAT Jew can be trusted? WHO can be sure of a Jew?

405312 Q 2 DJ

No wonder Negroes SPIT upon hearing word Jew; for Negroes KNOW that Jews control NAACP, etc.; Negroes KNOW that Jews first brought Negroes to U.S. as slaves (what a Jew won't do for money, control).

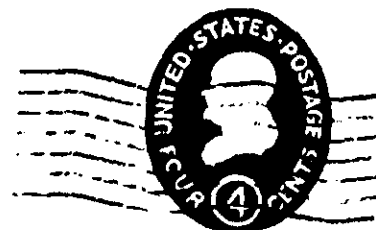

Jewism evidently is destined to go down in History as EVIL, CRUEL, MURDEROUS, TREACHEROUS, ANTI-GOD. God gave 10 Commandments to Moses (Jew) for all Jews to observe--but, WHAT Jew observes the 10 Commandments? No one can outdo Jewism in atrocities, treachery, merciliness. Or, do Jews (so-called self-styled CHOSEN ONES OF JEHOVAH) actually believe that the Commandments apply only among Jews? For example: Jews may murder non-Jews, but not another Jew. So, evidently Jews, Communist Jews, are breaking that law right and left--for, Beria, a Jew, was murdered by Molotov, Malinovsky, other Jews.

WHO can trust a Jew? WHAT Jew can be trusted? I don't trust you--someone may intercept this letter, and AGAIN I will be flooded with vicious Jew letters, phone calls.

Yes, at one time I DID trust Jews, respected them.

By airtel dated 10/1/71, Washington Field Office transmitted a photocopy of a typewritten letter, purportedly written and signed by Mr. Arthur J. Goldberg on April 16, 1968, to the Bureau. This letter, avowed by Mr. Goldberg to be a forgery, intimates collusion on the part of Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban, Dr. Henry A. Kissinger, and Mr. Goldberg in an effort to place Dr. Kissinger in the position of Political Affairs Advisor to President Richard M. Nixon. The disputed letter plus an exemplar of typewriting provided by Mr. Goldberg and a photocopy of Mr. Goldberg's genuine signature were furnished to the Laboratory on 10/4/71 for examination.

Lack of clarity in the photocopy of the disputed letter, which had also been reduced in size, would not permit the Laboratory to ascertain the make and model of the typewriter used in its preparation. However, it was possible to determine that the typewriting on the disputed letter is different from the exemplar of typewriting prepared on a typewriter used by Mr. Goldberg's secretary at the United Nations in 1968. Whether or not the Goldberg signature on the disputed letter is a forgery could not be determined because of the limited amount of known writing and lack of clarity in photocopies of both the known and questioned signatures.

Washington Field Office and New York are being apprised of the result of the Laboratory examination, the need for original documents, and a sufficient number of Mr. Goldberg's signatures to show normal variation in his handwriting.

Bureau letter dated 1-8-41. ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED DATE 1/20/91 BY [REDACTED]

DETAILS:

A review of the files in the Chicago Field Division reflects that the subject's name appeared in the list of sponsors for the National Conference on Constitutional Liberties of America. This information was reflected in Chicago file 100-1531, serial 4, page 5. File 100-927, serial 7, page 12 reflects that the subject was legal advisor on a Chicago Committee on Conscientious Objectors, which committee was a part of the Chicago Midwest Civil Liberties Committee. The files of [REDACTED] of the Industrial Squad of the Chicago Police Department reflect that the subject was president of the Chicago Lawyers Guild, information having been obtained from the November 3, 1939 issue of the Daily Record. The Daily Worker as of February 22, 1940 described him as being attorney for the newspaper guild. The files of Confidential Informant [REDACTED] reflected that on May 25, 1940 subject [REDACTED] was chairman of the Midwest Conference for American Committee for the Protection of Foreign Born. The files further disclosed a letter head dated February 22, 1940 which listed the subject as a member of the Continuation Committee of the Illinois Conference for Social Legislation. There was in the file a newspaper clipping taken from the Daily News on April 5, 1939 which reported that the subject had assumed the presidency of the Chicago chapters of the National Lawyers Guild, having previously served in the capacity of vice-president and director of the organization's six-month lecture course on law.

In a forward of the report of the Citizens Joint Commission of inquiry on the south side Memorial Day riot, 1937, acknowledgment is made of the assistance rendered by the Committee on Labor Law of the National Lawyers Guild. Of particular aid to this organization was a brief on the law applicable to the Memorial Day episode which had been submitted by GOLDBERG.

The file further disclosed that on May 26, 1939 GOLDBERG was a member of the committee which sponsored an emergency rally under the auspices of the Chicago Emergency Conference on Anti-Alien Legislation to expose and defeat un-American Anti-Alien bills.

b7C [REDACTED] of the Chicago Bar Association made the file of GOLDBERG available, which revealed that he was born on August 7, 1908 at Chicago, Illinois, that his parents both came to this country from Kiev, Russia. He attended Crane Junior College from September, 1924 to February, 1927; DePaul University September, 1925 to February, 1926, and the North Western University College of Law from Sept., 1926 to June, 1929. He received a degree of Bachelor of Law from this school.

The telephone directory for the City of Chicago revealed that GOLDBERG had his office at 39 S. LaSalle and resided at 5535 S. University Avenue. His residence address was verified by a visit to that point on September 2, 1941 and his office address was likewise verified by a visit.

On the basis of the above information, a Custodial Detention memorandum has been prepared and forwarded to the Bureau in order that the subject may be listed for Custodial Detention in the event of an emergency.

of the Illinois State Conference on Social Legislation in May, 1939. The informant reported that the committee included many well-known Communist figures in the Chicago area. The Conference itself was promoted by the International Labor Defense.

On February 14, 1940, Carol King of the International Juridical Association wrote a letter to Arthur Goldberg at 77 West Washington Street, Chicago, Illinois, enclosing the galley proof of an article to appear in "this week's" "New Republic." This article was said to speak for itself. Apparently the article was that entitled "American OGPU" which appeared in the February 19, 1940, issue of "New Republic." This pertained to the Bureau's activities in the Detroit Case and was quoted by Senator Norris on the floor of the Senate and used by him as the basis of his attack against the FBI.

She stated that the situation pointed to the fact that the heart had gone out of the attack on the Friends of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade and that perhaps a little more pressure would put an end to the mistake. In a postscript Carol King advised Goldberg that he was supposed to get the "Newspaper Guild" to do what it could with its Representatives and Senators and any other groups he, Goldberg, thought useful.

On February 22, 1940, the "Daily Worker" described Arthur J. Goldberg as the attorney for the "Newspaper Guild."

PURPOSE:

At your request, to provide a summary of information in Bureau files concerning Arthur J. Goldberg, General Counsel of the Congress of Industrial Organizations (CIO).

DETAILS:

No actual investigation has been conducted by the Bureau of Arthur J. Goldberg; however, a brief report in a closed status was submitted by the Chicago Office on September 23, 1941. This report contained information from the files of the Chicago Office reflecting Goldberg's affiliation with several Communist front organizations. There is attached a summary of all pertinent information presently available in Bureau files.

Goldberg was born in Chicago, Illinois, August 7, 1908. He received B.S.L. and J.D. degrees from Northwestern University and was admitted to the Bar in Chicago, Illinois, in 1929. He has done considerable legal work for the CIO and its affiliated unions principally in Chicago, Illinois, and Washington, D. C. Goldberg is presently National Counsel of the CIO with offices in Washington, D. C.

During the war, Goldberg served in the United States Army and the Office of Strategic Services. He held the rank of Major.

The attached summary contains allegations concerning his attendance at Communist Party meetings and affairs and his association with Communist Party officials in the early 1940's; however, none of this information can be said to have been furnished by informants of established reliability.

There is also information set forth concerning his affiliation or association with eleven organizations cited as Communist either by the Attorney General or the House Committee on Un-American Activities. He was also affiliated

On February 14, 1940, Carol King of the International Juridical Association wrote a letter to Arthur Goldberg at 77 West Washington Street, Chicago, Illinois, enclosing the galley proof of an article to appear in "this week's" "New Republic." Apparently, the article was that entitled, "American OGPU," which appeared in the February 19, 1940, issue of "New Republic." This pertained to activities of the FBI in Detroit and was quoted by Senator Norris on the floor of the Senate and used by him as the basis of an attack against the FBI.

King stated that the situation pointed to the fact that the heart had gone out of the attack on the Friends of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade (cited as Communist by the HCUA) and that perhaps a little more pressure would put an end to the mistake. In a postscript, Carol King advised Goldberg that he was supposed to get the "Newspaper Guild" to do what it could with Representatives and Senators and any other groups he, Goldberg, thought useful.

RELATIONS TO THE BUREAU:

⑧ Arthur Goldberg, General Counsel of the CIO, was in contact with Assistant to the Director Nichols on various occasions from January, 1950, to March, 1951, as a result of the recommendation of ~~Motor Diesel~~ of the ~~Post-Hall~~ Syndicate, New York City, who thought that Goldberg could be very helpful to the Bureau. ~~Motor Diesel~~ advised that Goldberg subsequently commented on these meetings and had remarked that he would do anything he possibly could to be of assistance to the Bureau if he were ever called upon to help. (61-7562-1587)

In December, 1950, Mr. Goldberg informed Mr. Nichols that the CIO had recently had difficulty in getting one of its members into the United States and it was his understanding that this was the result of erroneous information in the FBI files. After checking the Bureau files, Mr. Nichols advised Mr. Goldberg that this was not the result of any action on the part of the Bureau. Goldberg subsequently sent Mr. Nichols documents which he desired to become a part of the Bureau records. He was advised that this would be done and that the information would be passed to other interested agencies. ✓ (100-376151-1)

During the conversation with Mr. Nichols on December 22, 1950, Mr. Goldberg mentioned the recent CIO Convention and remarked that he was successful in preventing several resolutions from getting to the Resolutions Committee. These resolutions, which emanated from persons close to Walter Reuther, were critical of the Bureau. At this time Mr. Goldberg suggested that it might be very helpful to the Bureau to talk with Reuther relative to the progress being made in the Reuther case. Goldberg was convinced that Reuther's attitude would change materially by meeting and shaking hands with the Director, and advised that Reuther could be converted to the Bureau by merely facing the facts. ✓ (61-9556-181)

However, at a later date Goldberg advised that Reuther was hesitant about contacting the Bureau, but that Reuther's attitude toward the Bureau had changed. ✓ (61-9556-183)

Goldberg also suggested that Phil Murray, for whom he had great respect and admiration, be brought to the Bureau for the purpose of becoming acquainted with the Director. Goldberg advised that he thought this highly desirable, for a meeting of this kind could change Murray's anti-Bureau attitude to one which would be pro-Bureau. ✓ (61-9556-181)

On March 20, 1951, Mr. Goldberg advised Mr. McGuire of a situation in Dublin, Georgia, wherein he felt the civil rights of several members of the CIO had been violated. Mr. Goldberg was very pleased to hear of this. (44-3633)

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : MR. D. M. LADD

DATE: August 18, 1953

FROM : MR. A. H. BELMONT

SUBJECT: ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG
NAME CHECK REQUEST - WHITE HOUSE

On July 30, 1953, Mr. Sherman Adams, Assistant to the President, requested a name check on captioned individual who is being considered for a Presidential appointment. Arthur J. Goldberg was born in Chicago, Illinois, August 7, 1908. He is a member of the American Bar Association and during 1943 and 1944 he was a Major in the Army. He also served in the Office of Strategic Services and was formerly General Counsel of the Congress of Industrial Organizations (CIO). Goldberg has never been investigated by the Bureau but our files contain considerable information on a person who is probably identical. This individual is alleged to have been active with the Communist Party in Chicago and also associated with Communist Party-front organizations. From 1945 to 1952 Goldberg was in contact with Harold Blumberg. Blumberg has been known to contact Bentley as a Communist Party member and he has been in contact with L. B. Nichols. Since 1950 Goldberg has been in contact with the Director L. B. Nichols. He has professed he would be of assistance to the Bureau. During 1950 Goldberg was anxious to arrange a meeting between the Director and Walter Reuther, President of the CIO. He also wanted to arrange a meeting between the Director and Philip Murray, former President of the CIO. Goldberg was of the opinion that these meetings would be of assistance to the Bureau. Goldberg has requested Bureau investigations on civil rights matters and on members of the CIO.

being made of this information.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the attached blank memorandum on Arthur J. Goldberg be forwarded to Mr. Sherman Adams at the White House.

Dear Lou:

b7C
About two weeks ago I received a note from a very good friend of mine, and a distinguished Chicago lawyer, [REDACTED] stating that in a hearing before the Security Hearing Board of the Fifth Army, involving the loyalty case of a client of [REDACTED] the Army counsel asked a witness as to whether he knew an Arthur J. Goldberg, along with others, as a member of the International Labor Defense.

b7C
[REDACTED] who has known me for many, many years, and who knew that I had never been connected with this organization, called this to the attention of the Board hearing the case and also directed my attention to the fact that this inquiry had been made.

b7C
Upon receiving [REDACTED] note, I immediately wrote to him authorizing him to state formally for the record in my behalf that I never had any association of any kind with the International Labor Defense. A copy of my letter to [REDACTED] and a copy of a subsequent letter to him on the same subject is attached.

b7C
I am now in receipt of a further communication from [REDACTED] enclosing a communication from the Department of the Army in which they state that the use of my name is not intended to be a personal reference or a statement that I was a member of the International Labor Defense.

EXTENSION OF REMARKS OF
HON. HUBERT H. HUMPHREY OF MINNESOTA

Mr. HUMPHREY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that an open letter signed by Arthur J. Goldberg, general counsel for the Congress of Industrial Organizations; Welly K. Hopkins, counsel for the United Mine Workers; and J. Albert Woll, counsel for the American Federation of Labor, be printed in the Appendix of the Record.

The letter is a significant weapon in the arsenal of democracy against the onslaught of Communist totalitarianism. It reflects the overwhelming sentiment of the American free labor movement in its defense of the American system of democracy and in its recognition that the Soviet Union enslaves both the working people and their trade unions.

In recent weeks an international lawyers' conference met in Vienna which passed the resolution distorting the nature of the American society. The resolution has been distributed throughout the world by the Communist-controlled Federation of World Trade Unions. The reply by Messrs. Woll, Hopkins, and Goldberg, the outstanding labor lawyers in America, deserves the widest circulation in its attack against Communist totalitarianism and its eloquent espousal of democracy.

The conclusion is inescapable that the trade unions in the Soviet Union cannot be called free. Indeed, "they do not deserve the appellation of 'trade union'."

I commend Messrs. Hopkins, Woll, and Goldberg for taking the initiative in exposing once again the fraud that is communism. The American trade union movement is again demonstrating that it is one of the most effective champions of democracy in the world.

There being no objection, the letter was ordered to be printed in the Record, as follows:

LETTER TO J. H. OLDENBROEK, SECRETARY-GENERAL OF THE INTERNATIONAL CONFEDERATION OF FREE TRADE UNIONS, FROM J. ALBERT WOLL, COUNSEL FOR THE AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR; WELLY K. HOPKINS, COUNSEL FOR THE UNITED MINE WORKERS; AND ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG, GENERAL COUNSEL FOR THE CONGRESS OF INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATIONS

We are addressing this open letter to you in our capacities as the chief lawyers for the American Federation of Labor, the Congress of Industrial Organizations, and the United Mine Workers of America—the three United States trade union organizations affiliated with the International Confederation of Free Trade Unions.

Our attention has recently been directed to the resolution of the International Conference of Lawyers, held in Vienna under the auspices of the International Association of Democratic Lawyers, which resolution was published in Le Peuple of February 1, 1954; and to the speech of M. Leon Lyon-Caen, honorary first president of the Court of Cassation of France at the Vienna conference as printed in World Trade Union Movement, the publication of the Communist-dominated World Federation of Trade Unions, dated February 1, 1954.

Speaking as individuals and as lawyers intimately and constantly concerned with the legal problems of the American trade union movement, we take this means of vigorously protesting and denying the implications of the speech M. Leon Lyon-Caen, and of the resolution adopted by the International Conference of Lawyers.

In addition, we take this means of expressing our vigorous protest at the statement of Prof. Sergei Bratus, of the Soviet delegation to the conference, who in a report in the publication, News of Moscow, dated February 18, 1954, inferred that the International Association of Democratic Lawyers is "the movement of the honest lawyers of the world." It is no such thing.

It is clear to us that the Vienna Conference, sponsored by the International Association of Democratic Lawyers, was nothing more or less than a forum of undiluted Communist propaganda. If honest lawyers are so naive as to accept the flouting of logic which marked the resolutions and speeches of the Conference, they scarcely deserve the trust and respect of democratic peoples throughout the world.

An analysis of M. Lyon-Caen's address, which is being circulated by the WFTU, shows that he sought to establish two major points: (a) violation of trade union rights and civil liberties occurs only in the democratic countries of the free world; and (b) union rights and civil rights receive full protection only in the Soviet Union and the satellite so-called people's democracies. This conclusion is one that no honest lawyer fully aware of the facts and the law, can support by any known process of logic.

We have learned that the International Association of Democratic Lawyers was a sponsor of the vicious and false report on germ warfare in 1952. No group of honest lawyers could issue such a report, because the story of the use of germ warfare by the American and United Nations forces in Korea and China is an unfounded, deceiving, vicious fabrication for which there is not the slightest scientific basis of evidence.

Further study of the background of the International Association of Democratic Lawyers finds that it has uniformly extolled the alleged, but actually nonexistent, protection of civil rights in Communist-controlled countries while magnifying and distorting the facts about violation of civil and trade union rights in the non-Communist world. This background can scarcely appeal to truly honest and democratic lawyers, who seek to make determinations based on fact and to adopt progressive philosophies based on reality.

M. Lyon-Caen's speech, as reported in the WFTU Journal, is a long recording of the problems and difficulties faced by organized labor in the United States and other non-Communist countries.

As labor lawyers, we, of course, realize that the trade-union movement in the United States and other non-Communist nations has problems; but we are also fully conscious of the tremendous progress which the working people have made in developing their democratic trade-union organizations and, over the long run, of strengthening and improving the legislation under which they function.

We would be the first to acknowledge, as trade-union lawyers, that the Taft-Hartley Act was a backward step—but in perspective it does not merit the abuse for the American system of democracy which the International Association of Democratic Lawyers and other Communist spokesmen have heaped upon the American people in recent years.

We also would not deny that in certain underdeveloped areas of the globe great progress must be made in developing a free, democratic, and vigorous trade-union movement, in eliminating antilabor legislation, and in establishing a firm base for the progress of the workers' organizations.

But, as any truly honest lawyer must realize, the great strength of the democratic system is that it permits of change; that it offers a framework for the development of civil liberties, civil rights, and the orderly growth of trade unionism; that it encourages the participation of all the people and an accumulating understanding and strengthening of those fundamental liberties which are the basis of a civilized society. Certainly M. Lyon-Caen, if he were making an objective presentation, recognizing as he must the glorious heritage of the French people, would not fail to recognize the glories of the democratic process—of free thought and free speech, freedom to worship, and freedom of assemblage.

Certainly, also, he would have to recognize that in wide sections of the world the forces of totalitarianism are pledged to the destruction of those rights. That was true in Nazi Germany. That is true in Fascist nations, such as Spain and Argentina, and it is also true in the Communist world of Soviet Russia, Soviet China, and the satellite nations.

On the record of the facts of repression of trade unions, of slave-labor camps, and of harsh laws harshly administered against the independence of the workers, we are at a loss to understand how M. Lyon-Caen can say, as he did in his Vienna speech:

"One must not confuse these practices (i. e. repression of trade union and civil rights) with those of the Socialist countries where the state certainly takes an interest in the functioning of the trade unions, but to facilitate their formation and the functioning in order to accord them an ever greater role in the life of the enterprise and of the nation. Legislation in these countries threatens in no way the independence of the unions. On the one hand (in capitalist and colonial countries) we know a police control of the unions by the opponents of the trade union movement and the placing of workers' organizations in tutelage; on the other hand (in Socialist countries), in contrast thereto, the granting of very broad powers to the unions and the industry to facilitate the accomplishment of their task."

This statement—the only allusion in the speech to the relationship of the Soviet bloc of states to the trade unions of their countries, lies directly in the face of a massive amount of evidence.

In the Soviet Union and the satellite countries, there is no independence for the trade unions. The bylaws of the Soviet trade unions make clear that these trade unions are permitted no independence. The bylaws of the All Union Central Council of the Trade Unions of the U. S. S. R., according to the organization's own paper, Trud, May 11, 1949, reported:

"Soviet trade unions conduct all their work under the direction of the Communist Party—the organizing and directing force of Socialist society. The trade unions of the U. S. S. R. rally the working masses around the party of Lenin and Stalin."

Certainly, there is no indication of independence or freedom for trade unions when they are, by their own bylaws, placed under the control of a party or state—even when that party or state falsely claims, as does the Soviet Union and its Communist Party, it is the friend or the representative of the workers themselves.

No sane man can claim that the Soviet Union or its satellite countries has come close to approaching the utopia about which its founders and its leaders have spoken so ecstatically. The Soviet press occasionally, as part of official self-criticism, reports of bad working conditions, exploitation, shoddy construction of workers' homes and a host of other similar matters. Yet, never in a blue moon do the Soviet trade unions do anything about even these acknowledged problems.

Last year there was a shuffling of positions in the Soviet Government. When it had been accomplished, the chairman of the Presidium of the Soviet Union had suddenly become the secretary of the All Union Central Council of Trade Unions—by Government order and without any record of prior action to elect him by the Soviet trade unions. Can a case be argued for independence of the trade unions when they are not even free to pick their leader?

In every country where there is a bona fide trade-union movement, the agreement with management is the major goal of the workers and their trade-union leaders. Yet, in the Soviet Union, "The agreement of the parties [in negotiating collective agreements] plays a subordinate role in the determination of the amount of wages or salaries." (I. T. Gelyakova, Labor Legislation, Moscow, 1947.)

It is an essential of free trade unionism everywhere that the workers should have a voice in determining the rates by which they will be paid. Yet, in the Soviet Union (Trud, February 20, 1947), "It is well known that the rates of wages for workers, engineering-technical personnel, and office employees are established only by Government decisions." And this official trade-union organ continues, "It is the task of the trade unions and of managements to create conditions for increased productivity of labor, and thus to create the conditions for a raising of wages."

This impotence on the part of the unions was indicated by a delegate to the 1949 convention of the Soviet trade unions (the first convention in many years, incidentally) as reported by a member of a Swedish trade-union delegation which visited that convention. According to this Swedish unionist, writing in the Swedish trade unions' official publication:

"Comrade Koetkin made a still more grave complaint. He said that questions of wages and working conditions are being settled without hearing the union concerned. He considered this unreasonable because of the expert knowledge of facts represented by the unions. Yet he, too, avoided demanding that the interests of labor should be taken into consideration. It seems as if these interests are not identical with those of management—a fact hard to reconcile with the official theory."

The workers of the Communist world do not have the right to strike. Without the strike weapon, no trade union, regardless of the society in which it functions, has freedom to defend its members against repression, against attacks on the security of its organization, against economic deterioration, or to achieve effectively progress in social and economic matters. We are all well aware of the common Communist argument that strikes are unnecessary in a socialist country, but we cannot accept this fallacious argument. The long history of Soviet "self-criticism" by itself, let alone the real rather than official facts, proves that without trade unions permitted to strike or desirous of seeking the right to strike, abuses occur against working men and working women. Yet, the trade unions, harnessed as they are to the machinery of the Communist state, make no protest. In fact, they are silent partners in the exploitation of their own members.

Such unions cannot be called free. Indeed, they do not deserve the appellation of "trade unions."

The existence of slave-labor camps whose population runs into uncalculated millions, of whom a large portion are sentenced by administrative rather than judicial order; the heavy penalties for absenteeism or tardiness—punishment severe by any known standard in the modern world; the body of administrative law which ties the worker to his job and makes it most difficult if he seeks to move without the permission of management—all of these prove beyond doubt that in the Soviet Union as well as in the satellite nations, the major opponent of true trade union rights and fundamental civil liberties and civil rights is in fact, the Communist Party and the Communist-controlled government. This party and this government, though it falsely claims to speak for the workers, is actually the dictatorship of an elite group over the proletariat, and it treats the workers and their trade unions as a subjugated, captive manpower force.

Honest workers throughout the free democratic world and truly honest lawyers know it is dishonest in the face of the facts, to equate the position of the workers in the Communist world with those in the free nations. Unions cannot be free unless they have the right to use the strike weapon, regardless of the type of society or government in which they operate. Unions cannot be free if they are controlled by a monolithic political party and have their freedom and initiative made subordinate to the will of a political dictatorship.

Trade unions cannot be free and independent unless they are prepared to take an active part in developing and strengthening the civil liberties and civil rights, not only of working people but of every section of society—for only a free society in which there is freedom of choice, lawful action and freedom of movement, can promise, over the long run, a better world for the people.

Thus, the question becomes one of honesty of approach to this vital problem of trade union and civil rights.

As counsel for organizations affiliated with the International Confederation of Free Trade Unions, we must challenge the approach typified by the resolution of the International Conference of Lawyers and by M. Lyon-Caen's speech, which seeks to make an illogical and baseless comparison between the dictatorships of the world and the democracies of the world.

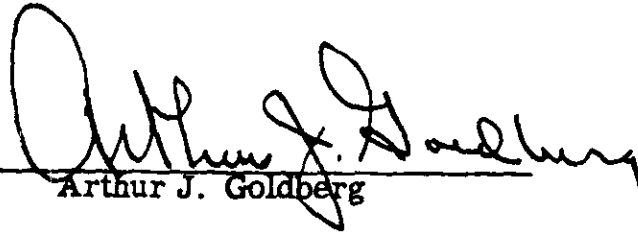

We denounce the resolution of the International Conference of Lawyers and M. Lyon-Caen's speech as a disservice to all real trade unionists who everywhere seek the extension and development of truly democratic systems which will bring political freedom, economic security and the chance for economic and creative advancement to all the peoples of the world.

Dear Mr. Bluthe:

You will recall that during the recent hearing which we attended together at Joliet Arsenal, you asked one of the witnesses about his acquaintanceship with a number of persons who were implied to be active in International Labor Defense. By my re-direct questioning of the witness, and also by my personal remarks to you, I expressed amazement, disbelief, and shock that you had included the name of Arthur J. Goldberg, General Counsel for the C.I.O. I understand that this was not a personal reference by you, but I assume that it was only a question based on material made available to you from some source.

Due probably to the multiplicity of reports and their multifarious nature, names creep into security records which are wholly irrelevant. Without disclosing the specific hearing, I personally informed Mr. Goldberg of the use of his name and received the enclosed letter from him. As a matter of fairness and courtesy, will you be good enough to forward the letter to the source of your obtaining Mr. Goldberg's name, in order that the record be clarified at once.

Thank you in advance for your courtesy.

Sincerely yours,

Dear

I appreciate very much your writing me about the incident that occurred during your hearing, and I am very indignant that my name was brought up in any connection.

As you know, I never was associated with the International Labor Defense in any manner, and if pertinent to your record, I will be very glad to file an affidavit to that effect for inclusion in the transcript of the hearing.

Let me know whether you think this is advisable.

Arthur J. Goldberg, General Counsel of the CIO, who has been very friendly disposed to the Bureau in recent years and with whom I have had periodic contacts, in the attached letter refers to a Security Hearing Board of the Fifth Army in Chicago and its proceedings in a loyalty case. The subject is not named. Goldberg encloses an exchange of correspondence with [REDACTED] a Chicago attorney, wherein [REDACTED] indicates that in a security hearing it was alleged there was connection on the part of Goldberg with the International Labor Defense. [REDACTED] denied this and Goldberg wrote a strong letter asserting that he had never been a member of the organization known as the International Labor Defense. He transmitted with his letter the original of an affidavit stating this fact. In his letter, Goldberg refers to a communication from the Department of the Army which pointed out that "generally, the information serving as a basis for security proceedings by this Department (meaning the Army) is received from the Federal Bureau of Investigation." The Army suggested that Goldberg might want to furnish information to the Bureau similar to that which he furnished the Army denying membership in the organization International Labor Defense.

Under date of August 13, 1954, we furnished information to the White House on Goldberg which referred to an affiliation, or at least an association, with the International Labor Defense. We also furnished information to CIA and the Navy in September, 1943. No doubt the information used by the Army came from either CIA or the Navy. Our information linking Goldberg with the International Labor Defense is as follows:

ENCLOSURE
May, 1939, a confidential informant advised the name of Arthur Goldberg, President of the Chicago Chapter, National Lawyers Guild, appeared on the sponsoring Committee of the Illinois State Conference on Social Legislation. This conference was sponsored by the International Labor Defense.

The records of the Chicago Police Department gave information that Arthur Goldberg, attorney, had worked on the case of the Lewistown defendants who had been charged with criminal syndicalism and was among those present at a celebration in the office of the International Labor Defense on February 22, 1941. This celebration was over the release of the defendants and the winning of the case was said to be a victory for the cause of the Communist Party.

In June, 1941, the records of the police department further showed that one Arthur Goldberg, with others, was checking over the affidavits received at the International Labor Defense office in Chicago during the six months prior to April 25, 1941, and the records were to be sent to the national branch of the International Labor Defense office at the request of Vito Marcantonio.

You will recall that in 1950 Goldberg headed off several resolutions from getting out of the Resolutions Committee at the CIO convention. These resolutions emanated from persons close to Walter Reuther which were critical of the Bureau.

X | Goldberg, from my own knowledge, prepared the cases against the eleven Communist-dominated unions which were expelled from the CIO and personally handled the presentation of the cases before the CIO Executive Committee.

Goldberg has also, according to Victor Riesel, interposed defense of the Bureau ~~vs.~~ charges dealing with our handling of the Loyalty Program at labor meetings.

Under the circumstances, I think it would be worth while for me to informally talk to Goldberg and ask him, without divulging our sources, about the above-mentioned data pertaining to the International Labor Defense and secure any type of statement he would like to make voluntarily, with the understanding we would then give it the same dissemination that had been given the original report.

I think this would pay dividends in the future.

RE: ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG

There are numerous references in Bureau files to Arthur J. Goldberg although no actual investigation has been conducted by the Bureau concerning him. A brief report in a closed status was submitted by the Chicago Office on September 23, 1941. This report contained information from the files of the Chicago Office reflecting Goldberg's affiliation with several Communist front organizations.

On March 21, 1952, the Domestic Intelligence Division wrote a lengthy memorandum of a summary of all pertinent information then available in Bureau files. This summary contains allegations concerning Goldberg's attendance at Communist Party meetings and affairs and his association with Communist Party officials in the early 1940's. It was pointed out in this summary, however, that none of this information could be said to have been furnished by informants of established reliability.

This summary memorandum also set forth information in Bureau files concerning Goldberg's association with eleven organizations cited as Communist either by the Attorney General or the House Committee on Un-American Activities. It is pointed out that one of these eleven organizations is the International Labor Defense. A copy of the memorandum written in March, 1952, is attached, and details of Goldberg's affiliation with the International Labor Defense appears on page four of this memorandum.

ADDITIONAL PERTINENT INFORMATION IN BUREAU FILES:

As of December, 1953, the Bureau was conducting extensive investigation concerning one [redacted] under a Registration Act; Internal Security - GB caption. [redacted] had associated with known Communists and members of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade. During World War II he served with the Office of Strategic Services (OSS) and apparently was closely connected with [redacted] Currie at the time [redacted] was employed in the White House.

DISSEMINATION BY THE BUREAU OF INFORMATION CONCERNING GOLDBERG:

During 1943 and 1944, the Bureau conducted limited investigation in a case entitled James M. [REDACTED] Industrial Institute under an Internal Security - C caption. A report emanating from the Chicago Office dated August 23, 1943, sets forth the following:

b7D "On January 8, 1942, Bureau Informant [redacted] reported that the Union Number 5 of the Communist Party held a league meeting at Liberty Hall, 14th Place and 49th Avenue, Cicero, [redacted] Communist Party activity was discussed and all high ranking Communist Party members were present, including Arthur J. Goldberg, of Civilian Liberties, and International Workers Order, and [redacted] for the Communist Party.

b7C "Mr. Goldberg announced that a series of trade union and political party conferences would open January 19, 1942, at the James Mullenbach Industrial Institute. It was reported that the Communist Party leaders had sponsored this trade union and political student program for the promotion of a national institution. Goldberg and [redacted] are reported to be members of the committee of which all are known members of the Communist Party are cooperating."

It is pointed out that copies of this report were disseminated on September 9, 1943, to ONI and G-2. (100-227494-1)

b7C In 1948, the Bureau conducted an Atomic Energy Act - Applicant case concerning one [redacted]. A report emanating from the Chicago Office dated August 26, 1948, contained considerable information concerning Arthur Goldberg and his activities in the International Labor Defense. (116-95027-8)

Two copies of this report were disseminated to the Atomic Energy Commission on December 1, 1948.

b7C A review of the Bureau file on one [redacted] on whom we conducted a Loyalty of Government Employees type investigation in 1949 reflects that the Central Intelligence Agency has considerable information in its files concerning Arthur J. Goldberg. [redacted]

This memorandum set forth practically the same information concerning Goldberg's affiliation with the International Labor Defense as is set forth in the attached memorandum. (62-60527-35111)

An informant, who has furnished reliable and unreliable information, advised that on May 26, 1940, one Arthur Goldberg acted as chairman of a midwest conference of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born. (100-7046-33)

The American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born has been cited by the Attorney General as a Communist organization.

American Youth Congress:

During August, 1941, this Bureau received a roster of names used by the American Youth Congress as their mailing list. Among the names appearing on this list was that of Arthur J. Goldberg, 29 South LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois. (100-3587-200)

The American Youth Congress has been cited by the Attorney General as a Communist organization.

Independent Citizens Committee of the Arts, Sciences, and Professions:

On September 13, 1946, Arthur J. Goldberg addressed a letter to the manager of the Continental Hotel, Chicago, Illinois, requesting reservations for some 20 persons who were expected to attend a convention of the Independent Citizens Committee of the Arts, Sciences, and Professions. This letter was written on the stationery of the law firm of Goldberg and Duves, 291 South LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois. Continental Hotel, 100-338892-78)

The Independent Citizens Committee of the Arts, Sciences, and Professions was cited as a Communist-front group by the Congressional Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives.

The records of the Chicago Police Department reflect that one Arthur Goldberg, an attorney who had been working on the case of the Lewistown defendants who had been charged with criminal syndicalism in the State of Illinois, was among the individuals present at a celebration held in the office of the International Labor Defense on February 22, 1941. This celebration was alleged to have resulted over the release of the defendants from the above charges. Everyone was reported to be hilariously happy over winning the case which was said to be a distinct victory for the cause of the Communist Party. ✓

The International Labor Defense has been cited by the Attorney General as a Communist organization. ✓

International Workers Order:

During July, 1942, Arthur J. Goldberg, an attorney, 39 South LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois, was one of the representatives of the International Workers Order in Chicago. ✓

The International Workers Order has been cited by the Attorney General as being a Communist organization.

National Emergency Conference:

In a pamphlet distributed by the above organization, it was set forth that a National Emergency Conference was to be held at the Raleigh Hotel in Washington, D. C., on May 13 and 14, 1949. This Conference was in protest of legislation which the members of the Conference felt threatened the civil rights and liberties, not only of aliens but of native and naturalized Americans. Among the individuals who signed the call for this Conference was one Arthur J. Goldberg. (100-1170-22)

Young Communist League:

According to a source, who has furnished both reliable and unreliable information, Arthur J. Goldberg, an attorney, requested speaking time at a rally sponsored by the Jewish Section of the Young Communist League held in Temple Judea, Chicago, Illinois, on September 12, 1941. This source described Goldberg as being connected with the International Labor Defense and representing workers in the CIO who were involved in labor disputes. (100-3-14-356)

The Young Communist League has been cited by the Attorney General as a subversive and Communist organization which sought to alter the form of Government of the United States by unconstitutional means.

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION:

It was alleged that one Arthur J. Goldberg was a member of the Sponsoring Committee of the Chicago Conference on Race Relations which was held in Chicago, Illinois, on July 22, 1939. This Conference was allegedly sponsored by the Communist Party of Illinois. (116-95027-8)

A source of information, who has given both reliable and unreliable information, reported during October, 1942, that one Arthur J. Goldberg was on the Executive Board of the Chicago Civil Liberties Committee. (100-6605-18)

On December 5, 1944, Major Arthur J. Goldberg, who was on inactive duty at the time, spoke at the monthly meeting of the Chicago Civil Liberties Committee on the subject "The Underground Fight for Civil Liberties." Goldberg was alleged to have come in contact with underground resistance movements in European countries while he was serving overseas with the Office of Strategic Services. (65-56402-374)

It was reported that the program and policies of the Chicago Civil Liberties Committee were closely parallel to those of the Communist Party line with respect to such issues as race discrimination, election laws, and poll tax. (100-6605-18)

My dear Mr. Adams:

Reference is made to my letter of August 13, 1953, which furnished you a summary of information from our files concerning Arthur J. Goldberg, General Counsel of the CIO. In that letter I noted that in some instances information had been included concerning an Arthur and an Arthur J. Goldberg in which there was a question of identity since limited or no identifying data had been furnished by the original source, and that since Goldberg has not been investigated by the FBI, this question of identity has not been resolved.

Arthur J. Goldberg recently contacted an official of this Bureau relative to an allegation which arose during an Army Security Board hearing linking his name with the International Labor Defense, an organization which has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450. He stated that he is not now and never has been a member of the International Labor Defense. On April 5, 1955, he volunteered additional information regarding himself which may be of benefit in evaluating the information previously furnished to you.

In accordance with Goldberg's request that the FBI send this information to any Government agency possessing information linking him with the International Labor Defense, a summary has been prepared which incorporates information in FBI files concerning him and the information which he furnished to this Bureau. A copy of that summary is enclosed.

SUBJECT:

ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG (100-7764)
GENERAL COUNSEL - CIO

b7C

By way of background, Arthur J. Goldberg, General Counsel of the CIO, contacted me last November regarding an allegation he had been involved in the International Labor Defense, which arose in an Army Security Board hearing in Chicago. Subsequently, Goldberg sent me correspondence he had had with [REDACTED] a Chicago attorney, wherein the allegation was made that Goldberg had been connected with the International Labor Defense and Goldberg executed an affidavit stated he was not now and never had been a member of an organization known as the International Labor Defense.

In checking, it was ascertained that we had furnished information to the White House which referred to an affiliation on the part of Goldberg with the International Labor Defense on August 13, 1954. We furnished the same information to CIA and the Navy in 1943.

b7C

In my memorandum of November 22, 1954, I suggested it would be worthwhile to talk to Goldberg, secure any statement he desired to make and give it the same dissemination we had given our original report. I then asked Goldberg to identify the case wherein his name had been injected. Subsequently, under date of January 11, 1955, he enclosed an additional letter from [REDACTED] the Chicago attorney, stating the case involved [REDACTED] had considerable information on [REDACTED] but we did not find [REDACTED] name associated with Goldberg and Goldberg's name did not figure into the investigation of [REDACTED]

Goldberg, of course, has been in and out of town being tied up on the CIO-AFL merger.

b7C

I saw Goldberg today and pointed out to him that as a personal favor to him, since this question had come up, while we had never investigated him, it had been determined that the name Arthur Goldberg had been raised as being connected with the International Labor Defense.

MAY 23 1955

I told Goldberg that if he desired, I would be glad to go down the line and we would then make this a matter of record in our files and see to it that the information was made available to any other agency wherein it appeared they had similar information. I told him quite frankly, while we had never investigated him, there had been a couple of instances wherein we had made a name check and the information had been disseminated merely as information coming to the Bureau.

Goldberg was very appreciative and stated that in the first instance he called this to our attention because he has felt very keenly that the Bureau has sought to do a good job, has not been a party to false charges that have arisen in the past and that he has gone to considerable lengths in labor circles in defending the Bureau.

It was specifically understood that Goldberg was not being interrogated but, on the other hand, he was volunteering to furnish any information and make available any data that might be of some future benefit in evaluating any information presently on file in government agencies.

By way of background, Goldberg stated that from his very early days he has been interested in the cause of civil liberties; that he has never been one to join organizations and that to his knowledge, the only organizations he has joined have been the American Civil Liberties Union, the Chicago Civil Liberties Union and the National Lawyers Guild.

He stated it is a matter of record that in 1939, 1940 and 1941 he was brought into the CIO to oppose the Communist element and that he authored the first anti-Communist provision in the Chicago and State CIO Constitution which prohibited Communists from joining the CIO.

67C He further stated that he was retained as counsel for the American Newspaper Guild, Chicago Chapter, to counteract and replace the Communist attorney who formerly had acted as counsel; that [REDACTED] assistant, can testify to this. ✓

over see sat for pg 3 [REDACTED] 200

b7C Goldberg further stated that the CIO in Chicago for many years had been represented by [REDACTED] that he became the counsel of the CIO to replace [REDACTED]

b7C He further stated the records of the Chicago Civil Liberties Committee will reflect that while he was a member of this board he was in constant opposition with [REDACTED] whom he always felt was a Communist and who since has admitted he was a Communist.

He further stated that the minutes of the convention of the National Lawyers Guild in 1941 would reflect he opposed a resolution brought forth by Lee Pressman, Harry Sacher and Carol King, which resolution would have been in opposition to our National Defense and pro-Communist.

He further stated that Morris Ernst could testify to his anti-Communist stand beginning in 1939 in the National Lawyers Guild.

He further stated the CIO records would conclusively show establish he was the one who recommended to Phil Murray that the Communist-infiltrated CIO unions be kicked out and he prepared the case against them. This I know of my own knowledge.

He further stated that OSS records would reflect that on one occasion when he was in charge of the Labor Division of OSS he personally would not accredit the Yugoslav group who had been cleared by a national agency check on the basis there was insufficient information to predicate a clearance.

He further stated that the records of the 1950 convention of the CIO Telephone Workers in Cleveland would reflect that the Korean crisis broke out while this convention was in session and that in a public statement he pledged the CIO, on behalf of Phil Murray, to supporting the administration in opposing Communist aggression.

Coming down to specific information, I desire to set out the following:

referred to
another agency

(1) I asked him if [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Goldberg stated he had never attended such a meeting; he did not know Wagenknecht. He knows who Budenz is. He has never knowingly attended a Communist meeting.

(2) I inquired whether he had appeared at a meeting at Liberty Hall, 14th Place and 49th Avenue, Cicero, Illinois, in January, 1942, and announced that a series of trade union and political party conferences would open January 19, 1942, at the James Mullenbach Industrial Institute in Chicago.

b7C He denied he had attended such a meeting. He was then attorney for the CIO in Chicago. At that time he was openly anti-Communist; the Communists were opposing him. He has spoken at the James Mullenbach Industrial Institute but at that time [REDACTED] now [REDACTED] was connected with this Institute. [REDACTED] could testify as to his anti-Communist background.

b7C (3) I then inquired if he had ever spoken at a meeting where [REDACTED] had presided.

b7C He stated he does not know a [REDACTED] nor has he spoken at a meeting where [REDACTED] has spoken, although he knows [REDACTED] who has a Communist background.

b7D (This information came from [REDACTED] an [REDACTED] informant named [REDACTED]. He reportedly was [REDACTED]. He was discontinued in [REDACTED] because the Chicago office discovered he was obtaining information secondhand and because of unreliability. He made an erroneous identification in one case and was an [REDACTED].

(4) I inquired if he attended a picnic at Pilsen Park, Chicago, on July 4, 1942, which picnic was under the auspices of the Illinois State Communist Party.

He stated he did not attend such a picnic in Pilsen Park; that in July, 1942, he was not in Chicago; he was in OSS in Washington where he had entered on duty in March of 1942.

(5) I inquired whether he had attended a conference of high-ranking leaders of the Communist Party on February 27, 1943, at the Mullenbach Industrial Institute.

He denied this, stating he was not in Chicago at that time but was in Washington.

(6) I inquired if he had ever served as Chairman of a Midwest Conference of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, which conference was held on May 25, 1940.

✓ He recalled having addressed one meeting of the American Committee for the Protection of Foreign Born. He cannot recall having presided at a meeting. He stated at that time he would have been interested in anti-alien bills and any legislation which discriminated against race, nationality or non-citizens. At that time he did not believe the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born had been clearly designated as a Communist front, although he knows it to be a Communist front today.

(7) I inquired whether he was ever connected with the American Youth Congress.

Goldberg stated he no doubt was on the mailing list of the American Youth Congress. He did recall attending one meeting of the American Youth Congress at the YMCA. He cannot recall he was ever a member. He is certain he has had no activity with the American Youth Congress and cannot believe he would have joined this organization.

(8) I inquired what his connections were with the Independent Citizens Committee of the Arts, Sciences and Professions.

He denied he was ever a member. He has no particular recollection.

I then inquired whether he had ever made hotel reservations during a conference of this group, at the Continental Hotel, Chicago.

He stated that he did have good connections at the Continental Hotel; his office put people up at the Continental Hotel; that friends could have called in and they could have routinely made reservations, however, he has no recollection of this.

(9) I inquired whether he, as President of the Chicago Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild, appeared on the Sponsoring Committee of the Illinois State Conference on Social Legislation in May, 1939, sponsored by the International Labor Defense.

Goldberg stated he was Chairman of the Chicago Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild at this time, had participated in various groups; he could recall this specific conference; he was certain if the conference was Communist sponsored he certainly would not have participated nor would the Communists at that time wanted him to participate and if he did attend any such conference, he did not know it was sponsored by the International Labor Defense.

referred to another agency (10) I inquired if

He denied this categorically.

referred to
another agency I inquired if

He has no knowledge of this.

(11) I inquired if he had any connection with the defense of the Lewistown defendants who had been charged with criminal syndicalism and whether he was among those present at a celebration of their victory in the office of the International Labor Defense on February 22, 1941.

He stated he recalls vaguely a case involving the Lewistown defendants; he had absolutely no connection whatsoever with this case and he most certainly did not attend any victory celebration in the offices of the International Labor Defense at any time.

(12) I inquired whether in the summer of 1941 he was checking affidavits received at the International Labor Defense which affidavits were sent to the national branch of the International Labor Defense office at the request of Vito Marcantonio.

He stated most assuredly he did not check any such affidavits and never did anything for the International Labor Defense.

(13) I inquired whether he was one of the representatives at a meeting of the International Workers Order of Chicago in July, 1942.

He stated he was not; that he may have met with people connected with the International Workers Order who were in the labor movement but if so, it was at a labor meeting.

In this connection, our information was that the Arthur J. Goldberg involved was an attorney, 39 South LaSalle Street, Chicago.

This, Goldberg stated, was his address but he was never connected in any way with the International Workers Order and in July, 1942, he was in Washington in OSS and not in Chicago.

(14) I asked him if he was a sponsor of the National Emergency Conference held in Washington in May, 1939.

Goldberg stated he had heard he was so listed in the House Committee on Un-American Activities records; that his name could have been used, but he has no specific recollection of it and he certainly did not attend any National Emergency Conference; that as a general proposition he was hostile to organizations generally having the same purpose as the American Civil Liberties Union and he could not conceive of his being associated in any way, although he may have granted permission to use his name but he could not recall it and he most assuredly was not at the conference.

(15) I inquired if he had served as a sponsor for the National Federation for Constitutional Liberties.

He stated he cannot recall granting permission to use his name in any way, shape or form; that he would not categorically say he did not grant permission to use his name, but he simply could not recall it.

(16) I asked him what his general connection was with the National Lawyers Guild.

He stated that he joined the National Lawyers Guild in the very early days. He stopped paying dues in 1941 or 1942; that in 1950 he wrote a letter to the National Lawyers Guild telling them he was not a member and that he had never been a member of the Washington chapter.

b7E

(This latter information is verified by [REDACTED])

Goldberg stated he thinks that there is correspondence in CIO files which would prove, if necessary, that beginning in 1948 he opposed the CIO giving money to the National Lawyers Guild and from 1948 on the CIO did not give money to the National Lawyers Guild.

He further stated that Morris Ernst could testify as to his opposition to Communists in the Guild beginning in the late Thirties and early Forties.

(17) I inquired whether he was connected with Russian War Relief in Chicago.

He stated that in 1946 he knew then what the Russians were up to; that he could not reconcile himself having membership; that he might have attended some meeting but he thought this was remote.

Our information was that he was a signer of some activity for Russian War Relief and that this Arthur Goldberg resided at 5411 South Greenwood Avenue.

He stated this was his address, but that he had no recollection.

(18) I inquired whether he was ever connected with the United Spanish Aid Committee.

He stated he had contributed to the United Spanish Aid Committee during the Spanish Civil War, however, when the Communist domination became known, he withdrew his support.

(19) I inquired whether he had requested to speak at a rally sponsored by the Jewish Section of the Young Communist League at Temple Judea, Chicago, Illinois, on September 12, 1941.

He stated most assuredly he did not; he has spoken at Temple Judea; this is one of the big Temples but he has not been in the habit of requesting permission to speak at any meeting and he has never knowingly attended a meeting of the Young Communist League.

MISCELLANEOUS

✓ Goldberg has always been interested in race relations. He cannot recall being connected with any specific groups, although he may have been.

He has opposed Carl King, Lee Pressman and others over an extended period of time and he would never be in their confidence.

I inquired what his connection with Harold Glasser was.

He stated Glasser's wife and his wife had been social workers together and their children had played together. He was never close to Glasser. He would never call Glasser a friend, although his wife and Glasser's wife were friends. He deprecates Glasser's actions in not making a clean breast of his activities and extending cooperation to his government. He has had no contact with the Glassers for years, however, they used to be in frequent contact, particularly the wives. They do not keep up contacts.

I asked him whether he had any connection with the Confederation of Latin American Workers or Toledano.

He stated he had considerable connection with the CTM anti-Communist wing and had unseated Toledano but he has never had a communication with Toledano.

b7C
I inquired what his connection was with [REDACTED]

b7C
He stated [REDACTED] was introduced to him by Allen Dulles in OSS as a trusted employee of OSS. His only contact with him has been an official contact in OSS. He regards [REDACTED] as eccentric, he would not trust him too far, although [REDACTED] did name him, along with a group of others, to whom he was dedicating his book.

Goldberg stated that he realized full well that the session with him today was very unusual. He deeply appreciated our attitude; this strengthened his own personal feelings toward the Bureau and he stated if there were any other questions or if on further reflection we doubted anything he told us, he would then welcome a searching inquiry.

He stated he has a Reserve Commission in the Air Force and he hopes we can find some way to send his information to any other agencies possessing the information linking him with the International Labor Defense. I told him we would be glad to do this.

Since we have furnished information to Sherman Adams, the White House, ONI, and CIA, it is suggested a memorandum be prepared furnishing the essence of the above, as well as to the Air Force.

My frank opinion is that there is another Arthur Goldberg in Chicago. Considerable of the information on Goldberg comes from Chicago Police Department files and the Navy. I think an injustice has been done in disseminating the information which we had, although I cannot see where the Bureau can be blamed for this, but certainly the information comes from sources that cannot be considered as being reliable.

Goldberg himself mentioned he had always thought perhaps the Police might have been the source of some of this information. I told him perhaps sometime when he was in Chicago it might be to his advantage to go to the police and arrange to get himself on record.

Certainly Goldberg's record of anti-Communist activities over the years pretty well speaks for itself.

By memorandum dated 11/22/54 Mr. Nichols advised that the captioned individual had contacted him regarding an allegation that Goldberg had been connected with the International Labor Defense (ILD), which arose in an Army Security Board hearing in Chicago. By memorandum dated 4/5/55, (attached) Mr. Nichols advised that Goldberg had since identified the case in which his name was reportedly mentioned as that of [REDACTED]. Although [REDACTED] has been investigated by the Bureau, Goldberg was not mentioned in these investigations.

Goldberg furnished a signed affidavit that he is not now and never has been a member of the ILD and on 4/5/55 he volunteered to furnish any information concerning himself that might be of benefit in evaluating information on file in Government agencies. Goldberg stated he has a reserve commission in the Air Force and requested that the Bureau find some way to send the information to any other agency possessing information linking him with the ILD.

Although Goldberg has not been investigated by the Bureau, summaries which referred to his affiliation with the ILD were furnished to the State Department on 2/2/42 and 12/10/43, and to the White House on 8/13/53. Information concerning him has also been incorporated in reports of security investigations of other individuals and these reports have been disseminated to various Governmental agencies including the Department, ONI, G-2, CIA, Immigration and Naturalization Service, and Atomic Energy Commission. CIA files contain considerable information concerning Goldberg, a former employee of the Office of Strategic Services, one of the predecessors of CIA. Inasmuch as the above-mentioned agencies have not all been furnished the same information concerning Goldberg, a memorandum thought suitable for dissemination is attached. This memorandum

Goldberg stated that although he had been interested in the cause of civil liberties, to his knowledge the only organizations he has joined have been the American Civil Liberties Union, the Chicago Civil Liberties Committee, and the National Lawyers Guild. In February, 1955, Goldberg warned against attempts by Communist dominated unions to merge with the CIO or AFL in order to avoid the provisions of the 1954 Communist Control Act.

ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG
GENERAL COUNSEL - CIO

Arthur J. Goldberg recently contacted an official of this Bureau regarding an allegation that he had been involved in the International Labor Defense (ILD). He stated that this allegation arose during an Army Security Board hearing in Chicago. On November 17, 1954, Goldberg executed an affidavit in which he stated that he is not now and never has been a member of an organization known as the International Labor Defense.

On April 5, 1955, Goldberg also volunteered other information concerning himself which may be of benefit in evaluating any information presently on file regarding him. He stated he has a reserve commission in the Air Force and requested that the FBI send the information which he furnished to other agencies possessing information linking him with the I.L.D. In order to enable you to evaluate the information which Goldberg furnished this Bureau concerning himself, a summary of information in FBI files which may pertain to him is also being set forth.

Goldberg has never been investigated by this Bureau, however, our files do contain considerable information concerning an Arthur J. Goldberg which may pertain to the captioned individual. In some instances it is not possible to determine if this information is applicable to the General Counsel of the CIO, inasmuch as there was limited or no identifying data furnished by the original source. Since Goldberg has never been investigated by this Bureau, this question of identity has not been resolved.

Goldberg stated that from his very early days he has been interested in the cause of civil liberties, but that he has never been one to join organizations and that to his knowledge the only organizations he has joined have been the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU), the Chicago Civil Liberties Committee (CCLC), and the National Lawyers Guild (NLG). Goldberg stated it is a matter of record that in 1939 he was brought into the CIO to oppose the Communist element, and that he authored the first anti-Communist provision in the Chicago and State CIO constitutions, which prohibited Communists from joining the CIO.

* Goldberg requested that the information which he furnished to Mr. Nichols be furnished to those agencies possessing information concerning him. As some of those agencies possessing this information have already been furnished the following information from Bufiles, either in memoranda or reports, it has been included in this memorandum with the above qualifying statement.

Goldberg advised that he had been retained as counsel for the American Newspaper Guild, Chicago Chapter, to counteract and replace the Communist attorney who formerly had acted as counsel; that he became counsel of the CIO in Chicago to replace the Communist lawyer who had represented it for many years; that the CIO records would conclusively establish that he was the one who recommended that the Communist infiltrated CIO unions be "kicked out" and who prepared the case against them; and that the 1930 convention records of the CIO telephone workers in Cleveland would reflect that the Korean crisis broke out while this convention was in session and that in a public statement Goldberg pledged the CIO's support to the administration in opposing Communist aggression.

The ACPFB has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450. (Confidential informant [redacted] publication files 100-7046-33 p. 15)

Goldberg recalled having addressed one meeting of the ACPFB stating that at that time he would have been interested in antialien bills and any legislation which discriminated against race, nationality or noncitizens. He said that he did not believe the ACPFB had been clearly designated as a Communist front at that time although he knows it to be a Communist front today.

American Youth Congress (AYC):

In August, 1941, the name of Arthur J. Goldberg, 39 South LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois, appeared on a roster of names used by the AYC as their mailing list. The AYC has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450. (Confidential informant [redacted] 100-3587-200 p. 15)

Goldberg stated he was no doubt on the mailing list of the AYC; that he did recall attending one meeting of the AYC at the [redacted] that he cannot recall he was ever a member; and that he is certain he has had no activity with the AYC and cannot believe he would have joined this organization.

Independent Citizens Committee of the Arts, Sciences, and Professions (ICCASP):

On September 13, 1946, Arthur J. Goldberg addressed a letter to the manager of the Continental Hotel, Chicago, Illinois, requesting reservations for some 20 persons who were expected to attend a convention of the ICCASP. This letter was written on the stationery of the law firm of Goldberg and Devos, 231 South LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois. The ICCASP was cited as a Communist front by the Congressional Committee on Un-American Activities. [redacted] Continental Hotel; 100-338892-78)

Goldberg stated he had never been a member of the ICCASP. He said he did have good connections at the Continental Hotel in Chicago and that if friends had called, his office could have routinely made reservations for them.

In May, 1939, an informant, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the name of Arthur Goldberg, President, Chicago Chapter, National Lawyers Guild (NLG), appeared on a list of the sponsoring committee of the Illinois State Conference on Social Legislation. This conference was reported to have been sponsored by the ILD and to have been composed of many well-known Communist figures in Chicago who were interested in social legislation. (Confidential informants [redacted] and [redacted] 61-7347-190)

[redacted] 61-7559-8446)

The records of the Chicago Police Department reflect that one Arthur Goldberg, an attorney who had worked on the case of the Lewistown defendants, who had been charged with criminal syndicalism, and [redacted] of the Chicago Civil Liberties Committee (CCLC), were among those present at a celebration in the office of the ILD on February 22, 1941. This celebration was alleged to have resulted over the release of the defendants from the above charges. The 1941 Annual Report of the CCLC stated that the committee also participated in the defense of the Lewistown defendants. According to this report, "Lewistown was the community which indicted for sedition five Chicagoans who solicited signatures for the Communist Party election petition in 1940, and finally convicted them on minor charges and collected the fines in 1941." (116-95027-8 p. 7; 100-8605-18 Enclosure)

The ILD has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

In addition to the affidavit of November 17, 1954, in which Goldberg stated "I am not now and never have been a member of the organization known as the ILD," Goldberg stated that he was certain he did not know it if any conference which he had attended had been sponsored by the ILD. He said that he vaguely recalled a case involving the Lewistown defendants, but that he had had absolutely no connection whatsoever with this case.

International Workers Order (IWO):

An informant, who has furnished both reliable and unreliable information in the past, stated in July, 1942, that Arthur J. Goldberg, attorney, 39 South LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois, was a committeeman for the Labor and Political Cooperating Committee of Chicago which issued a call to all trade-union officials to send delegates to a conference to be held on July 27, 1942. According to the informant, Goldberg was a representative of the IWO in Chicago. The IWO has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450. [REDACTED] 105-12800-35)

Goldberg advised that he has not been a representative of the IWO; that he might have met with people connected with the IWO who were in the labor movement, but if so it was at a labor meeting.

National Emergency Conference (NEC):

In a pamphlet distributed by the above organization, it was set forth that a National Emergency Conference was to be held at the Raleigh Hotel in Washington, D. C., on May 13 and 14, 1939. This conference was in protest of legislation which the members of the conference felt threatened the civil rights and liberties, not only of aliens but of native and naturalized Americans. Among the individuals who signed the call for this conference was one Arthur J. Goldberg. The NEC has been cited as a Communist front group by the HCUA. (Confidential informant [REDACTED] 100-1170-22)

Goldberg stated that he had heard that he was listed in the HCUA records as having been a sponsor of the NEC held in Washington, D. C., in May, 1939. He advised that he certainly did not attend this conference; that as a general practice he was hostile to organizations generally having the same purpose as the ACLU, although he might have granted the National Emergency Conference permission to use his name.

National Federation for Constitutional Liberties (NFCL):

An exhibit in the HCUA hearings held on July 30 and 31, 1953, listed one Arthur J. Goldberg as a sponsor in the program of the Conference on Constitutional Liberties held on June 7, 8, and 9, 1940. The NFCL, which was established as a result of this conference, has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450. (61-7582-2095 p. 2730)

Goldberg said he could not recall granting the NFCL permission to use his name in any way, shape, or form; but that he would not categorically say that he did not grant such permission.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

National Lawyers Guild (NLG):

The "Chicago Daily News" on April 5, 1939, reported that Arthur J. Goldberg had assumed the presidency of the Chicago Chapter of the NLG. He had previously served as Vice President and Director of the NLG's lecture course on law. At the time of the annual convention of the NLG held at the LaSalle Hotel in Chicago, Illinois, on February 20, 21, and 22, 1943, Goldberg was listed as a member of the Board of Directors of the Chicago Chapter of the NLG. (100-7764-5; Agent of War Dep't., 100-7321-21)

67E Arthur J. Goldberg, 231 South LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois, paid his membership dues in the NLG for the years 1947 and 1948. As of December, 1949, Arthur J. Goldberg, CIO, 718 Jackson Place, Washington, D. C., was carried as an active member of the NLG.

(105-12800-35; 100-7321-481, 650)

The NLG has been cited as a Communist front organization by the HCUA.

Goldberg advised that he joined the NLG in the very early days; that he was Chairman of the Chicago Chapter of the NLG in 1939; that he stopped paying dues in 1941 or 1942; and that in 1950 he wrote a letter to the NLG stating that he was not a member and had never been a member of its Washington Chapter. He further noted that the minutes of the 1941 NLG convention would reflect he had opposed a resolution which would have been in opposition to our national defense and pro-Communist. He said that he believes there is correspondence in CIO files which would prove that beginning in 1948 Goldberg opposed the CIO's giving money to the NLG.

United American Spanish Aid Committee:

This Bureau received a list of names which were maintained in the files of the United American Spanish Aid Committee. Included therein was the name of Arthur Goldberg, 29 South LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois. The significance of this list is not known. The United American Spanish Aid Committee has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Goldberg stated that he had contributed to the United Spanish Aid Committee during the Spanish Civil War, however, when its Communist domination became known he withdrew his support.

Young Communist League (YCL):

According to a source, who has furnished both reliable and unreliable information, Arthur J. Goldberg, an attorney, requested speaking time at a rally sponsored by the Jewish Section of the YCL held in Temple Judea, Chicago, Illinois, on September 12, 1941. This source described Goldberg as being connected with the ILD and representing workers in the CIO who were involved in labor disputes. The YCL has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Goldberg said he had spoken at the Temple Judea in Chicago, however, he had never knowingly attended a meeting of the Young Communist League.

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION:

A circular announcing the Chicago Civil Liberties Committee's (CCLC) Spring of 1941 Benefit listed Arthur J. Goldberg as one of the counsels appointed by the CCLC Chairman in April, 1941. The August 7, 1942, issue of "Civil Liberties News," published by the CCLC, reported that Arthur J. Goldberg, who had taken a Government position in the East, had been replaced as counsel of the CCLC. The November 7, 1942, issue of the "Civil Liberties News" stated that Arthur J. Goldberg was in London on work for the Donovan agency (Office of Strategic Services), and had been unable to attend CCLC Board meetings since March 24.

It was reported that the program and policies of the CCLC were closely parallel to those of the Communist Party line with respect to such issues as race discrimination, election laws, and poll tax.

b7C Goldberg said that the records of the CCLC will reflect that while he was a member of its Board, he was in constant opposition to [REDACTED] of the CCLC, who he always felt was a Communist and who since has admitted he was a Communist.

Reliable sources have reported that Harold Glasser, during 1945 and 1952, was in contact with Arthur Goldberg, 5411 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, and 2811 Albemarle Street, Washington, D. C.

(Long-distance telephone calls; 65-56402-850)

self-confessed former Soviet espionage agent. During this period Glasser furnished Bentley with information obtained from his official position at the Treasury Department, which was for transmittal to the Soviet Union. During 1949 Glasser was interviewed by Agents of this Bureau, at which time he refused to deny or confirm his Communist or espionage activities.

Goldberg states that he would never call Harold Glasser, with whom he was reported to have been in contact in 1945 and 1952, a close friend, although their wives were social workers together and were friends. He said he has had no contact with the Glassers for years, however, they used to be in frequent contact, particularly their wives. Goldberg deprecated Glasser's actions in not making a clean breast of his activities and extending cooperation to the Government.

[REDACTED]
(100-157057-6; [REDACTED])

Goldberg advised that he had had considerable connection with the CTM (Confederation of Workers of Mexico) anti-Communist wing.

A Washington City News Service release of February 15, 1955, reported that CIO General Counsel, Arthur Goldberg, had warned against attempts by "Communist-dominated" unions to merge with the CIO or AFL unions in order to avoid the provisions of the 1954 Communist Control Act, which authorizes the Justice Department to take action against alleged Communist-dominated unions before the Subversive Activities Control Board. Goldberg pointed out that the Act "in effect establishes a presumption that a union affiliated with the AFL, CIO or any other established anti-Communist federation or organization, is not Communist infiltrated." Goldberg said that the Act thus provides an incentive for leaders of Communist-dominated unions to merge with the CIO and AFL unions, and that there was an apparent Communist Party program for attempting such infiltrations. INSIDE LABOR

By Victor Riesel

Few would deny that Arthur Goldberg is Mr. Labor Lawyer of all time. He is counsel to the United Steel Workers, special counsel to the AFL-CIO and attorney for many national unions. I asked Mr. Goldberg for his views on what he believes to be the basic labor issue today. Here is his reply:

By Arthur J. Goldberg

Washington: — The principal concern about bigness in labor comes not from members of unions but from two groups outside the labor movement.

One group has no objection to bigness as such. This group only objects to bigness in the labor movement. It consists primarily of those who have always opposed the existence of effective trade unions and who have seized upon the element of bigness as merely the latest in a series of propaganda weapons. These interests opposed unions when they were small and now oppose them even more vehemently when they are large.

67C
They assume that it will be easier to defeat or hamper the forward progress of 20 or 100 small steel unions than one large steel union and I suppose they are correct in that estimate. These opponents of effective unionism were answered in 1937 by Chief Justice Hughes in the Jones and Laughlin case, sustaining the validity of the Wagner Act, in these words:

"Long ago we stated the reason for labor organization. We said they were organized out of the  necessities of the situation; that a single employee was helpless in dealing with an employer  that union was essential to give laborers opportunity to deal on an equality with their employer."

This self-evident truth applies today in answer to those who believe that the managers of big powerful enterprises should have the privilege of sitting across the collective bargaining table from the leaders of weak, divided and helpless unions.

— MORE —

NOT RECORDED
AUG 5 1960

8/2/60

The second group concerned about bigness in the labor movement are those legitimately and genuinely concerned with bigness in every form of social organization and who see in bigness per se a threat to the individuality of our lives and to the future of our democratic processes and institutions.

To that group the answer is that we are living in a period of spectacular, amazing, unrelenting growth. We cannot turn back the clock, and if we could it would not be desirable to do so. Bigness is a part of today's life and only romanticists seriously visualize a change in this pattern.

Certainly, our experience with bigness in corporations provides proof of this fact if proof is required. For almost 70 years now, since the passage of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act, the Federal government has wrestled with the problem of bigness in corporations. Nevertheless, corporations have grown apace, notwithstanding the statute.

Life in a society of big units may not always be pleasant, but putting nostalgia aside, it is certainly better than it used to be in the so-called "good old days." Certainly for the average working man, his standard of living has been markedly improved in the era which has been characterized by big business units and by the growth of big unions.

There are four areas where it seems reasonably clear that large unions serve the purposes of the individual and of the society better than small unions -- or at a very minimum, serve these purposes no worse than small unions.

First, in the big, rich, mass-production industries that dominate the American economy, it seems to me beyond need of proof that big unionism is the only effective and satisfactory form of unionism.

Second, I think that a study of the internal structures and practices of big unions and small unions would show no particular advantage for the smaller, presumably more grass-roots type of labor organization, in the area of ethical practices and democratic rights. The Ethical Practices Committee of the AFL-CIO found evidences of corruption and lack of democracy in a few small unions and in a large one, too.

-- MORE --

Corruption is not a function of bigness in unions; indeed, there is room for speculating that the smaller group, with its more convenient power levers available to corrupt elements, may be more susceptible to perversion of ethical and democratic rights than larger, more formal entities.

Third, large unions seem as capable and as desirous as smaller organizations in promoting civil rights programs, protecting the due process of members and insisting on formal procedures to protect individual members from unfair actions by fellow members or by officers. Perhaps because of their bigness, diversified membership and all-inclusiveness, many of the larger unions can point to far more progress in the fields of civil liberties and civil rights than many of the small unions.

Fourth, big unions have developed imposing educational, citizenship and community service programs. These are unselfish projects which inure to the gain of the communities as well as the members. While the union as an organism certainly derives benefits from raising the educational level of its membership, or of making its members and their families more sophisticated politically, it is equally clear that over the long run that same process also serves to enable the members to play a more useful role in their own relationship with the union organization and in the performance of their civic obligations.

The member of a union has a citizenship responsibility to exert his franchise in his union, and thereby to insure that the organization represents the will of the majority. There are cases, in both big unions and small, where that franchise has not been exerted sufficiently or at all.

But I see no pattern emerging in the American trade union movement to suggest that the individual has fewer rights, or exercises his rights less, or receives less service, or gets fewer benefits in a big union as compared to his brother in the smaller trade union organizations.

INSIDE LABOR

By Victor Riesel

The other day I chatted about unions and many things and the Pennsylvania Railroad strike with the spokesman for 20,000 business firms. He is Charles Sligh, executive vice president and operating staff chief of the National Assn. of Manufacturers. "This country," he said quite strongly, "cannot tolerate having two kinds of justice -- one for unions and one for everyone else."

Mr. Sligh then recalled that this summer I had interviewed Arthur Goldberg, labor's most brilliant attorney. The lawyer, who I believe some day will sit on the Supreme Court, had said that some of those who criticize labor "have always opposed the existence of effective trade unions and...have seized upon the element of bigness as merely the latest in a series of propaganda weapons."

Since "equal time" is in the air, I thought of "equal space" for Mr. Sligh if he cared to put his point of view on the line. He did. It's a strong point of view. Here it is:

"It should be obvious to all," said Mr. Sligh, "that in our society certain functions can be performed best by large organizations -- large labor unions, large corporations, large research organizations, large educational institutions.

67C "Most of the critics of labor unions or of corporations do not object to 'bigness' as such. Their concern is whether this leads to a position of monopoly power.

NOT RECORDED

"Size alone, as Arthur Goldberg states, is not the sole standard of good or evil. The anti-trust laws recognize this and, as Mr. Goldberg points out, these laws have not prevented the growth of America's productive corporations.

"The evil that the anti-trust laws seek to prevent in business is not 'bigness' but monopoly. This is immediately evident when one examines the anti-trust actions taken by the government. Anti-trust laws are enforced, not only in actions against giants of industry, but also against tiny companies which have either achieved monopoly or which have engaged in business practices which tend toward the elimination of competition.

"The thinking critic of today's union movement is alarmed by the monopoly power of some unions rather than by the size of the unions. For more than 50 years, the laws of the U.S., have been strengthened constantly to protect the public against the possibility of development of monopoly power in business. Under today's laws there is no legal protection against the monopoly power of labor unions unless the unions exert this power in collusion with employers.

"This double standard of law, which makes identical actions illegal if performed by one organization and legal if performed by another, obviously cannot be right. The public deserves protection from monopolies no matter from what quarter they threaten.

"It is evident that a union, to be effective, must not be substantially weaker than the employer with which it must deal. But there are many unions today which are overwhelmingly stronger than the employers with which they must deal.

"In the mass production industries which Mr. Goldberg mentions, many companies compete with each other, while in most such industries one union deals with all employers and holds bargaining strength far greater than any individual company with which it deals.

"For instance, five companies make passenger automobiles in quantity, but one union dictates the labor conditions in all of them. In the steel industry, which Mr. Goldberg cites, there are many producing companies, but only one major union,

"Such situations as these have led to industry-wide bargaining and inevitably to industry-wide strikes which endanger the welfare of the nation at large and of every citizen in it. A strike in steel, as we have recently seen demonstrated, can create what amounts to a recession.

"The power of monopoly unions has the same effect as a monopoly in the production of a commodity. It forces up the price that the consumer must pay, therefore curtailing the market for the product and reducing employment opportunities in the affected industry.

--MORE--

"Small unions, as well as large, are found in monopoly positions. In New York, we have seen steamfitters, who already were drawing wages exceeding the pay of college professors and many professional men in industry, striking in rejection of an increase of around 70 cents an hour. They are able, through monopoly action, to prevent completion of nearly every building under construction in the city.

"Such monopolies, even when they involve relatively few members, have a broad effect upon the public.

"There is a direct connection between the five-figure compensation of building workers and the fact that new low and middle income housing has become virtually impossible to produce in the city without subsidies from the taxpayer's pocket.

"The public has seen too many demonstrations of overwhelming union strength to be persuaded that they are still feeble infant organizations which require special privileges under the law in order to survive.

"Over the portals of the U.S. Supreme Court are the words 'Equal Justice Under the Law.' This concept has not yet been applied to the privileged unions and the need to do so is increasingly evident as many unions take actions which would bring prosecution if committed by anyone else in our society. Americans cannot tolerate having two kinds of justice -- one for unions and one for everyone else."

It is with distinct pleasure that I extend to you an invitation to deliver an address at the graduation exercises of the Sixty-eighth Session of the FBI National Academy at 10:30 a. m., Wednesday, November 8, 1961. The ceremonies will be held in the Departmental Auditorium which is located immediately adjacent to the Labor Department Building and will be attended by approximately 1,500 persons.

The National Academy was instituted by this Bureau on July 29, 1935, for the purpose of giving training to representatives of state, county and city law enforcement agencies as police instructors and executives. To date there have been graduated 4,013 such officers, and we have 80 men in the graduating class. The present class has representatives from 37 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and two representatives from Canada.

You may be assured that all of us in the FBI and the members of the graduating class, their families and friends, will consider it a very great honor if you can be with us on November 8.

Sincerely yours,

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Papal Visit Marks Goldberg Trip

By Drew Pearson

Justice Arthur Goldberg spent part of the summer on a good-will tour of India and Malaysia before returning to the tough job of handing down Supreme Court opinions. He delivered some lectures at the law school of the University of New Delhi, had a stimulating interview with Premier Shastri of India in which Shastri expressed his appreciation for American food, and watched the constructive efforts of the new Malaysian Republic to hammer out a new democracy in Southeast Asia.

Pearson

In Malaysia, Justice Goldberg was particularly impressed by the Peace Corps, which has not only done an efficient job but which has emphasized U.S. aid. The gift without the giver is bare, observed the Justice, and when our Peace Corps youngsters work side by side with other youngsters in these countries, it makes the local citizenry realize that we are putting our heart as well as our dollar and our food into their countries.

In Malaysia, John Shaw of Boston, a member of the Peace Corps, had bulldozed several hundred fish ponds for the farmers, similar to the fish ponds dug on farms all over the USA.

Perhaps the highlight of Justice Goldberg's tour was an audience with Pope Paul. He was received not as an American official but as a leader of American Jewry.

Before going in to see the Pope, Goldberg, who is a native of Chicago, asked one of the monsignori in the Pope's outer office, who happened to be from Chicago, whether it would be out of line for him to take up the question of deicide, which has been under debate by the Ecumenical Council.

"Go all the way," replied the Chicago monsignor.

During his talk with the Pope, therefore, Goldberg pointed out that the origin of anti-Semitism was in the Catholic doctrine that the Jews were responsible for the death of Christ.

"We liked the first report brought out by the Committee of Bishops," the Justice told the Holy Father. "It was strong when it came out of committee. But then some place along the line it was watered down. Jews in America generally don't feel that the final report goes far enough. It simply states that the Jews of this age are not guilty of deicide."

The Pope listened carefully and finally told Goldberg that there were problems within the church as well as problems of doctrine. He gave the impression, however, of agreeing with the position of American Jews.

Leonard Shane, Los Angeles: Copies of the expose of the book "None Dare Call It Treason" can be obtained from the Washington office of Rep. Charles Vanik (D-Ohio). The expose was conducted by the National Committee for Civic Responsibility which showed the book to be full of errors and exaggeration.

Mrs. Sunshine Golub, Schenectady, N.Y.: It was Leo Rieardson, former adviser to Father Coughlin, who conceived the idea for Goldwater's famous book, "The Conscience of a Conservative," and had it published by the obscure Victor Publishing Company of Shepherdsville, Ky. Brent Bozell, a right-wing politician in Maryland and a Yale classmate of William Buckley, ghost-wrote the book.

Mrs. H. E. Millan, Orange Park, Fla.: The alleged hammer and sickle which you thought you saw on the Kennedy 50-cent piece is actually a combination of the initials of the sculptor who designed it—Gilroy Roberts.

Charles E. Schwartz, Akron: Sen. Goldwater's controversial statement about Democrats and Jews was made over Radio Station WWDC, July 25, 1962. He said, "It is very difficult for me to understand the Jew. I happen to be half Jewish."

My people when they lived in New York — they're all dead now—were Orthodox Jews, all Democrats. I used to get into terrific arguments with my cousins who, while they were alive, all voted Democratic." Goldwater went on to say that Democratic administrations in Washington had "allowed communism to get started in this world and created nazism and fascism in Germany and Italy. . . . The greatest enemy of the Jew in the world has been the Democratic Party and their stupid treaties that they made with other countries. I don't charge them with being anti-Semitic but I do charge them with making treaties with our enemies that have allowed our own people, the Jewish people, to suffer through pogroms and anti-Semitism all over the world."

Lou Gordon, Detroit: There is absolutely no truth in the report that President Johnson will appoint Mayor Jerry Cavanagh of Detroit to the Cabinet after elections. Mayor Cavanagh does not rate high in LBJ's book.

Thomas Alder, Milwaukee: Pageant magazine's alleged poll of the Senate press gallery regarding Senators did not poll a real cross-section of newsmen. Sen. William Proxmire rates high, as do Paul Douglas (D-Ill.), Wayne Morse (D-Ore.), Hale Boggs (D-La.) and Wayne Hays (D-Ohio.).

RE [REDACTED]

67C,67D

[REDACTED] told [REDACTED] he received a very interesting letter this morning (10/21/65). [REDACTED] then furnished the following information which he requested [REDACTED] to keep in confidence:

67C
67D

[REDACTED] received a letter from a rather substantial businessman (not further identified) in Chicago who is connected with the Small Businessmen's Association. This individual is [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] This individual claimed to have been "a member of the Party with COLLEKINS."

67C,67D

[REDACTED] added he will have to make arrangements to have this individual interviewed. [REDACTED] mentioned he considers this very interesting and would like to be kept informed of developments.

67C
67D

Also, for the information of Chicago [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] It can be assumed that [REDACTED] from time to time, could be the recipient of so-called crank letters. It would appear, however, that based on what transpired between [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] the sender of above referred to letter could have furnished a name and address.

SUBJECT: AMBASSADOR ARTHUR GOLDBERG (Request to use secure Bureau storage space in New York for automobile for approximately ten days)

b7C SAC Turyn, New York, called on the evening of 11/20/67, to advise that [REDACTED] U. S. Mission to the United Nations (USMUN), had called on behalf of Ambassador Goldberg to see if the Bureau had secure storage space where the Ambassador could store his car during the evenings for a period of approximately a week to ten days. We have secure space and it is recommended that we afford this courtesy to Ambassador Goldberg.
Details are as follows:

b7C [REDACTED] advised that the size of the car prohibits its being parked in the USMUN garage and the Ambassador has requested that he see if the FBI had secure space where the car could be parked at night. SAC Turyn advised that New York does have garage space in the basement of the New York Office and there is a uniformed guard (GSA) on duty at all times and the only ones having keys to the garage are officials of our New York Office and the guard. Mr. Turyn was of the opinion the car could be stored in this garage without difficulty.

RECOMMENDATION:

As such as Ambassador Goldberg has been most cooperative with the Bureau, it is recommended that we accede to this request and if you approve, New York will be advised accordingly.

On July 15, 1976, Former U. S. Supreme Court Associate Justice Arthur J. Goldberg, Route 799, Orlean, Virginia, advised of the following incident which occurred at his residence on July 10, 1976:

b7C

At approximately 6:30 p.m., July 10, 1976, Justice Goldberg's [REDACTED] observed a young white male drive into the Goldberg's yard in a brown Ford Pinto. This individual exited his vehicle carrying a small blue box with bright metal trim and handle. He came up to the Goldberg's front porch and deposited the box on the floor to the right of the door, then returned to his vehicle. He did not knock or otherwise make his presence known.

b7C

[REDACTED] went outside and asked the individual whether he was a guest and if the box was for Justice Goldberg. The individual identified himself as [REDACTED] and asked [REDACTED] if he was Justice Goldberg. When advised by [REDACTED] that he was not Justice Goldberg, the individual inquired as to whether there were children at the Goldberg residence. [REDACTED] inquired again of [REDACTED] about the box and its contents. [REDACTED] came back to the porch, retrieved the box and began to return to his vehicle. He made the comment, "It is a bomb. Do you think it is a bomb?" [REDACTED] then departed in his vehicle, which was observed to be license plate number [REDACTED] dark letters and numerals on a white background.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

b7C The Goldbergs immediately advised Fauquier County Sheriff's Department, Warrenton, Virginia, of the incident. A search of the area by Sheriff Deputies failed to locate [REDACTED] or his vehicle.

b7C [REDACTED] is described as dark complected, 18 to 22 years old, five feet six inches tall, 150 pounds, dark hair and eyes, wearing blue jeans, printed shirt and hush puppy shoes. He spoke in broken English and was difficult to understand. He advised [REDACTED] that he was an Iranian.

b7C Concerning vehicle license [REDACTED] Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV), North Carolina, records reflected 1977 North Carolina registration [REDACTED] issued to [REDACTED] Raleigh, North Carolina, for a 1971 Ford. DMV records for Virginia, Washington, D. C. and Maryland reflect no record identifiable with the vehicle described by [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG,
Former Associate Justice,
U. S. Supreme Court - VICTIM POSSIBLE EXPLOSIVES AND INCENDIARY DEVICES

Reference is made to Alexandria memorandum dated July 20, 1976.

b7C

On July 30, 1976, [REDACTED]
Fauquier County Sheriff's Department, Warrenton, Virginia, advised he located subject operating a tan Ford Pinto, bearing North Carolina license [REDACTED] on Route 55, Marshall, Virginia.

b7C

Subject was interviewed by [REDACTED] and advised he is employed during the summer for [REDACTED] [REDACTED] location not stated, as a book salesman. Subject advised he is a student at the University of North Carolina and is on summer break. He was accompanied by his wife and infant child, and is currently residing at [REDACTED] Front Royal, Virginia, telephone [REDACTED] He will remain at that address three more weeks.

b7C

[REDACTED] advised the subject was extremely co-operative, although very difficult to understand because of a foreign accent. He readily permitted a search of his vehicle and person, which resulted in nothing being found of an explosive or incendiary nature. Located in the subject's vehicle was a small blue metal box which contained dictionaries and other books.
